

Sure! What's the worst that could happen?

Hey let's listen to advice of some cold blood body!

Masculine & Feminine Left & Right Logic & Emotion = A human being

Adam & Eve lived in the garden of Eden and everything was fantastic!
They had one instruction though. It was from their intuition. Their soul and authentic self.

NEVER EVALUATE YOURSELF IN RELATION TO ANYTHING OR ANYBODY ELSE.
NEVER COMPARE YOURSELF TO AN IDEA OF WHO YOU ARE AND WHAT YOU*VE DONE.

But. They did and got thrown out from the Garden of Eden.

The 'Tree of Knowledge' got them thinking.

I.E

ONE human began questioning the perfect existence in total acceptance & harmony in alignment with their authentic self and so they found themselves psychologically tormented by their own judgement.

Everything was groovy until they did that.

This human then projected that onto the world for thousands of years instead of taking personal responsibility for returning to innocence and thus identifying with their soul instead of their intellect.

End of story.
