DOUBT

When doubt arises that's on you
When you stop dreaming that's on you
When you can't see it that's on you
When isn't happening that's on you

When nothing seems to work well that's on you
When all you've done seem pointless that's on you
When you can't see a way out that's on you
When you don't know anything that's on you

So what the hell are you supposed to do??

..Sunday May 5th. 18:40

It's hard to convince yourself that you are nice
When people give you a heart of ice
But trust me when I say to you
Look at who you are when true

Lies are constructs of the mind
Remember that deep down you're kind
You do what's right and that's your game
Forget about the eskimos, that's their game

No offense I used you as a reference
I am not racist I'm just independence
Day! Right now feel like blasting all
Those who stabbed me so I fall

But that is Ego, hello again!
Please go back and remember when
Nothing happen you where free
Find that place and you will see

That all you need is here and nowa
Stop too think about when and howella
Mandela he did it and so can you
Let God the source be the tape and glue

Leave the fight turn on the light
Play some games all thru the night
All is coming just relax!
All will clear including tax

Ese listen you are Bambino
Pure and clean not like Latrino
Taco Loco's will get theirs
Maybe the will lose all hair?

Just to get even and feel your pain
Stay in center fuck the lanes
I told you it's yours so please chill out
And stop all this destructive unfaithful doubt

The time is close, the game will end
Remember who of them where friend
I know you got a list like Santa
Everything on there I will grant a

Wish so true and beautiful
All I've said is immutable
Trust in me I said like before
Have some fun, be not a bore

That's an icebreaker famous in Sweden
Warm your heart dear, let it sweeten
Soon your boat will cross the sea
And there she is, waiting to be

Swept away with your witty charm
As she'll feel you'll do no harm
Like you are the nicest guy
To your troubles say bye bye

You bought some games, you did today
So load 'em up! Begin to play
Get consumed and interact
Lose your worries, this is fact

Keep the fire burning strong
I don't think she also likes thong
She's real kool just like you are
Been thru shit, and know the scar

You've met so many lovely my lady
Some of which you could call baby
But none of them will match this one!!!
SHE! Is magic! She's the sun!

Fuckin' ey my wonderful boy!
She is gorgeous not a toy
Dignity and self respect!
Supernova max effect!

Oh I want her! Yes! So much!
She can drive I'll be the clutch
Making music having fun!
This has only just begun

Sparks and thunder universe!
You will fuckin' eat her purse!
And mold that shit into gorgeous art!
Look just like her! Golden heart!

You've already met she held your hand
As you had visions in dreamland
Remember the feeling (yes I remember)
You see! Now let me be the desire assembler

Alright alright! I'll play some game
Nothing will ever be the same
I trust you God I do I just waver
I wanna collect not be a penny saver

I've seen the dreams & get the guidance
The live in love and skip the violence
OMG can you all see what's written
I am me and God so smitten!

Trust yourself and you'll be fine
I am hers and she is mine
We'll go dancing eat sum good
The Rose is out now from da hood

Peas!
