

The World 2 day

Is not any different than any other time.

We blame the world. We say "The world today!"
We wanna save the world!

The world ladies and gentlemen is fine.
The world has a scratch on the knee from a little fall. That's all.

The world can handle ANYTHING!

And survive, become great, healed and full of love and abundance once again.

But humanity... Is the one in need of saving. Humanity is on fire!
standing in the middle of the inferno trying to disco....

O M G

All from one single thing.

F E A R (The reason why the R and A are so close together is because I'm too fast. I write letters before their time I am way ahead. (PUN))

This fear is all about being relaxed and secure to be and to absolutely love yourself. Because when you do!!!
You don't trash anything!

You mistreat people and the world because you mistreat yourself.

You have become deeply if not totally impersonal.

I see the same dude @ dudette everywhere! Let me tell ya!

You are asking for it!

You. Are. Asking. For.

No diversity.

Same food every day.

One kind of music. (specific frequency)

Same haircut.

Same humor. (If any at all)

The same creative creations.

WHY?

Because of fear coming from an absolute intelligence idea...

About being you.
About being true.

I wrote this by hand just because it's personal, and that is actually human.
Less people nowadays get that? The only understand letters and words that are digital. Not organic.

So.

A handwritten note,
With something cute to it like this

Has to be the most sickest shit ever.

Like "I'm bout 2B murdered"

Humanity is sick,
They've got a fever,
And I wish I could say they need more cowbell. But they gotta get outta the fire first.

And re-e-wind,
To again and waybe
for the first time...

Know.
By feeling.
What love is...

Yours
the Rose
