THE ROSE FROM THE HOOD

TRANSMUTATION.SE

YOU ARE FOREVER PROTECTED

As long as you stay connected
You will be protected

Never be of worry child
Never let the darkness wild's

Fantasy come get you, that's a lie
I have seen you when you cry

You have given all to me,
You have held the precious she

In your hand just like I do
That's the magic that's the brew

None will die, unless they choose
When they sing the sorrows blues

All day all night, without a thread
Connected to me, they're already dead

Inside their hearts but walk on earth
They did not understand their birth

As they arrived in paradise
Here on Gaia, not the skies

Virgins aren't present here?
All is soul my lovely dear

Sex is made for you to enjoy
Be that girl or be that boy

But never use it as escape
That is only own soul rape

You'll destroy the beauty then
Listen heartfelt, women & men

Killing love is the hearts little cist
A tomb from the understanding that you've missed

The anger that you feel inside
That makes you want to cheat on bride

Is on love herself despite the gender
An angel will help you return to sender

Right here right now, not later on
You get the option every dawn

To break the lie and habit of fear
Please relax my lovely dear

Nothing bad can come from compassion
The Rose is all love and this the passion

He listens and answers only to me
I am not a male and I am not she

I am God, grace and mercy
You are human, the one who curses be

Spit in the air and look at me
When it hits you look and see

Your own mistake, your own misdeed
That's how everything becomes in greed

All is yours, it's always been
When you're living free of sin

Do not judge, is what you all say
But you do that anyway?

And state you're true and that's the venom
Silk, cotton, polyester or denim

Clothes are not religious no
That's like the world identified with snow

The world has seasons and so do you
Do all things you want to do

Have no fear and follow me
And you'll be forever free

Don't stop praying from your heart
That's the connection, old fashion scart

That never grows old and simple enough
Why you have to make it so tough?

Don't be mad at anyone
You're mad at truth? C'mon my son.

The Rose just chose to do what's right
He wanted all to stop the fight

To find and keep the love for child
Born to run free nature wild

Trust in nature, love, God and truth
Protects all life, protects the youth

Never put the rose in glass
It will wither as time pass

But comes again when it is spring
Trying ones more the truth to bring

Thousands of years you've all been silly
Mohammed, George, Johan & Lily

Stop to compete and make a team
This will grant your biggest dream

That you've all had since you where 3
That the world would be where we are free

You already are, you're already there
Just a step away from scare

Tactics be what's done for survival
But that won't make a love revival?

You are not falling down a cliff
The guitar string isn't deadly with the riff

Sing and dance with joy and smile
Just don't naked in a pile

Be mature and hug and kiss
Destruction you will never miss

Only for the house condemned
Before it's too late you can all mend

Or else we start over, amoeba and bacteria
These are the conditions, those are the criteria

Unfolding and expanding all
Doesn't happen with a fall

So get up and take responsibility
And thou shall be forever free!

*Please my child
Just look and see*
