

I AM:

Subconsciously waiting for the right time..

Adelante

Has been the struggle of my heart.

A struggle for life. Which in relation to love which gives life is completely contradictory. So why the struggle? Well, because of injustice. Global injustice. I feel it. You feel it. I choose to do something about it which includes feeling it as much as possible. You might dismiss it and continue to be obedient in relation to a sick system. All the tension I feel. Is from a heart that knows. It knows all. I won't make me stop until I've done everything in my power. For justice. As clear as possible. As open as possible. As free as possible. This is my mission. It's yours as well. But many people live a life of superficial satisfaction. And stay comfortable yet knowing that children are being sexually abused and murdered. We all know the shitty products destroying the earth. We all know about everything. And still we don't have to intellectually know anything. It's all intelligence. It's all spiritual. It's all love. So each and every individual knows. By heart. We feel the injustice. But then we choose to connect with it as to change it or not. To live spiritually is living without offense. The Ego structure is the only thing capable of being offended. Which adds to negative karma. As we also have a collective Ego in that sense. We feed our subconscious minds, our spirit, with what we desire. And from offense we feed it with more chaos and destruction. Devilish. Immature. Irresponsible. The true meaning of responsible is emotional. How responsible you are is your own choice of depth. And from that depth you create. And what you create is to raise awareness. As clear and universal as possible. And then you share that for free. Because when people take part of that. When they experience that. They don't have that choice anymore. Which is not a demand put on them in punishment. No.. It's a gift. From me to you as a swift and clear way to unravel and rid us all from negative karma. The energy trying to go backwards in a forever forward motion expansive universe. Who does not wish for things to get better? Well, the victim. The victim might say they wish for things to get better but they don't feel like it. They wanna stay offended and hurt. The Bruce'd Ego hiding with bats. Cave of darkness wearing a mask. Fighting the fighters. That's an inverted Fire-

Marshall. Why are certain individuals apposing everything. We all want it to be better. We all want more. We all wish for everything. But very few people understand how the human experience actually works. What the intention of coming her truly is. And so we struggle. Against the universal laws that make everything work in absolute perfection. When we can align with them instead. Which can only happen from understanding ourselves from the inside out.

So there's a lot of pressure. And it happens naturally as you choose to be as much light as possible in a completely contrasting universe. Where light is for all and darkness is in total opposition. A human being in opposition to its true nature. The pressure comes as loss. And negative experiences which someone working for the light chooses to use under this amount of pressure as to create understanding. The universe is constantly expanding. Becoming more. Going forward is another way to put it. History does not repeat itself exactly the same. But it will repeat itself if we neglect karma and simply don't make ourselves aware as to understand. So I have been walking in my fathers footsteps a lot. As to understand my legacy and to make something good out of it. Not to condemn it. Judgement is just a great hold on the negative dark energy. Which can't ever win. It just slows everything down. Which for everyone on earth becomes way more pressure to live effortlessly than necessary. There should always be a little pressure as to be willing to try new things. To challenge yourself in joy. But not as in being brave enough to run thru a minefield. But as you can see from the picture. All of that neglected love and spiritual living makes for these things to happen. As we give power to the darkness instead of the light. I am in the middle of those to pyramids right now. Friday, February 21st, 2025. Because I have given everything for the light for a very long time. Every single day. Listening to my heart. Asking what this means. Creating understanding about it. Sharing it for free. Draining myself energy wise. All in the position of no support from my family. They actually report me to the police instead. I don't receive any financial support. I don't receive any support really. All because I asked for it. This is my destiny. My creed. My creation. And I need to trust that. Today I feel like it's over. My struggle. As I got notice I am getting evicted yesterday I lost all fire. And in an all loving universe that must mean one thing and one thing only. That I am done. And that things will now blow up. With New Clear Understanding. It's time for you now. To go thru the shame, guilt & fear. Like I have. From Neptune to the bottom of the sea. But you can never experience what I've been thru. So nobody will ever understand me. Just as I can never understand you. We cannot compare suffering. Today I wonder about eating at all if I had food. Because I'm just so tired of all of this.. To give and not be supported. To deliver something amazing but nobody receives it. Instead society and my family does not care if I live or die. They can say whatever the fuck they want. Be nobody cares. If they did? They would support me. And nobody does. Except Lisbeth. Which offered me a sandwich today. And asked me how I feel. And I really wanna go out for a walk today but I am afraid that it might drain me even more. Because I'm so tired. I'm not sleepy. I am not tired in my mind. It's my heart. Things are never really critical. All I need is to feel that it's truly over.

And let go. Allow for life to happen. Which is somewhat difficult for me as I have been writing all the time. I've been on this constantly. I want a break. I want a vacation. But that is hard where I am. Right in the middle of where I usually am. Creation and going thru everything emotionally.

So I wish to come away from here. Somewhere warm. Somewhere supportive. With nutritious foods and beautiful nature. We never wanna escape our bodies honestly. We wish to escape our circumstances. We all wanna live free. Have fun. Enjoy life. Which is a natural given but we appose it like complete idiots. I am sick and tired of these circumstances. And I feel like I have done more than enough. So I need to collect now. And how does one do that? I'll ask God hold on..

Mhm..

Uhu...

Ok..

Yeah..

Mmm..

Hm?..

Ok!

Yes.

The answer is yes. God can only say yes. And I am God. So am I done? Yes. Will everything come now? Yes. Will it be beyond my imagination? Yes. God can only give a positive joyful yes to life. Nothing else. So when I say: I am going on a vacation. God says yes. I am world famous. God says yes. You see as long as I don't question God I do not question anything. And without a question there cannot be a hold. And things must happen. They must happen. Why am I getting evicted? Because everything went to shit? Come on! That's not universally correct. It's because it's time! Why else? It's time now. To move on. To receive! From all the work. From all the struggle. From all the pain. From all the loving creation raising awareness intergalactically!

If you look for a sign? This is it.

God says this right now: Your apartment. The environment surrounding it was just like a gym. Everything was planned to make you feel a bit at home and still with tons of pressure from negative energy as to make you feel pressured doing all of the necessary creations. For a world of love. YOU HAVE TO BELIEVE THAT! IF!? You wanna see it happen. Which by now is not about doing anything. It's ALL ABOUT RECEIVING. Joyful expectancy go go go! Keep that fire son! Keep that fire! Do not give up as your bottom lip is practically a small underbite from the finish line. I support you son! I support you all the time! Thank me! I am love! I am God! I am you! Thank yourself! Give praise and thank yourself son sun son! Whatever! Connect with yourself! Feel the pride inside your heart! Receive the goodness! Just receive it. You did it! You made it! You are the star officially now.

YES I AM!

Yeah sun! Go on Sun!

I AM A STAR!

I AM LOVE!

YES!

I SAY YES TO LIFE! I SAY YES BECAUSE I DESERVE TO LIVE! AND I DESERVE TO LIVE AS MUCH AS POSSIBLE! AS GOOD AS POSSIBLE! AS LOVING AS POSSIBLE! AS PLEASURABLE AS POSSIBLE! AS EXCITING AS POSSIBLE! I AM WORTHY OF A GREAT LIFE! FUCK ALL MUTHAFUCKAZ! FUCK ALL CPU'S LACK OF INTELLIGENCE MUTHAFUCKAZ! EL REY! LA SOL! VIVA LA REVOLUTION! LIGHT LOVE TRUTH! REEBOK OR SON NIKE!

Have you ever heard 'John Lennon - Gimme some truth'?

That's the song of the heart. Not a specific individual. What made him do that song and me do all what I'm doing is a heart experiencing injustice. And hurts from it. Which we can drug away. Or do something about. Going thru the pain as to present: WHAT IS ACTUALLY CAUSING IT.

What no Doctor I've ever heard of is doing without their title.

If somebody like Joe Dispenza truly wished to change the world he would have given all for free as Joe. Just Joe.

But there is money and status involved. Ego.

- Well you gotta make a living?

At the expense of the welfare for the entire human race? Sounds a bit like the American dream to me?.. Swimming in money. Greed. Terrible. If there is a group of people in Argentina that needs me to help them. Donating money to me can pay for the travel, the food, the rented location for conversations. And me returning. It can become an ecosystem of you paying me and getting use for your money. And also as support and gratitude for all my work given for free.

Listen to yourself. The more you listen to someone else the more you confuse yourself. A website like transmutation.se is something anyone can do. It will just be nuanced and shaped a bit different as you have your experiences in life. I don't rap for instance. Even if I sound like LL Cool J combined with Common and Mystikal. I just make some music, write lyrics and record it like a one take. It's about the message. I'm not trying to become a famous rapper. I like to sing but I could use so guidance on how to hold notes and use my abdomen more to not get voice fatigue super fast.

I just wanna be the guy with the key you know. The key to your heart. The key to love. The key to life. Nothing gives me more pleasure than opening someone up and making the realize the confusion about things.

Everything truly comes and becomes from positive self supportive affirmations. Making yourself feel really good. I cried when I wrote all that self support talking to God 2 pages ago. And I felt my fire return again. I gave that to myself. Right where I am. I wanna go to Chile so much! And I wanna eat fresh avocados! I wanna eat fish tacos! And I wanna have a beer at the beach. I wanna relax and just have a wonderful time until I feel that I have truly rested.

The end is the beginning. Always.

Positive outlook. And things work out without suffering.

You see it's like this now. If the government takes what is redeemed as valuable from my possessions. And perhaps trashed all else. Puts me on the street and says good luck, is crucifixion.

And people don't understand this. Because they don't understand that all is energy. With nuancing of various expressions. Light gets reflected from a specific surface with a code of attraction making this whatever it is a certain color. With shade as to create depth which is a new code expression, frequency as to create dimension. All of this comes in a variety of solidity given the frequency expression in relation to gravity. How much does it hold on to itself. Well that depends. If that is water coming from the shower head? Or a rock outside in the woods among trees. So..

For me.

I am light. I am bright. I am a very loving, giving, free being identified and self created. But! With opposition. Which are human beings in opposition to themselves not realizing themselves as I. And therefor become projected resistance in relation to themselves primarily yet not taken responsibility for in lack of understanding which makes life more challenging for me.

So I am.. Subconsciously waiting for the right time to come. And it will.

If they put me on the streets? They might as well drink caustic soda and shoot themselves in the face. While standing in a fire. Getting electrocuted from a connection to a power plant.

So when is the right time then?

It's the pivot.

Let me illustrate..

Can you see all the losers there on the left side? Those are people completely material. But I am just the one guy there on the other side. In relation to my immediate resistance. Which is mainly my own family as the losers on the other side. They hold on to judgement. I don't. The fear change. I don't. I embrace and honor love. They don't. The work hard as to get a paycheck. I work hard as to bring world peace. What do you think weighs more in relation to universal creation? And what happens when you add to that negative weight in relation to me? I get a harder time. But as I am positive and understand all of this. You just keep adding guilt in relation to yourself. The right time will come because the universe is always becoming more of what it is. Which is pure unconditional free love. Which I am all about. So I can't loose. You can't make me loose. I have already won. Because the entire universe of love is on my side as I choose the right side going forward. Adelante.

One thing more about the Spanish language besides El Luna and La Sol. Is the word Papi. I have heard this in sexual context between a woman and a man. This is very disturbing. If I am intimate with a woman and she calls me daddy. I would simply freak out. I would not feel that this is sexy. If she says something like 'Yeah! Give it to me daddy'.

I become her psychiatrist. Immediately.

What is going on here??

But for some this is sexy behavior. It turns them on. Just like some guy would say 'Yeah! You like that mama'. That is incredibly disturbing. What kind of love/sex confusion are both these individuals entertaining within themselves as to make that arousing sexually?

Better recognize this. If you are one of these individuals I suggest to not have sex for a long time. And sort things out. Take a look at love being free. And becoming mature. From this new perspective of emotional understanding you will be ready to have sex.

If I was in a coma right now. transmutation.se would be world famous. As I would not be conscious to doubt it and I would not have any tension in my body preventing anything naturally. But I don't need that. The energies are increasing and becoming more. The light is amped. Everything will happen. It's just a matter of time. And for a good reason as well in relation to my creation. Because the amount of good will in relation to completely terrible behavior will become more of a humiliation and shame for resistors which is necessary for a great impact making the humble. Which is in relation to me as a person. I am the one creator of this. But truth be told it's humble before God. Not in relation to someone who writes, makes artwork and music. No.

If I made one song. And I did one video. And wrote a single well written PDF. Would not be enough. So I can see the course of events in relation to pressure universally as to make this into a bomb. A spiritual bomb in the intergalactic civil war. I drop a nuke of love. That's what I do.

So bright. So clear! That it will blow the minds of everyone. It's gonna be worldwide. And the radiation will remain for at least 3500 years. Until someone gets bored. And we start over again I guess. But perhaps not as terrible as this time. Or maybe.. Maybe it's inevitable as well in relation to a universe of attraction in complete contrast.

I made myself the light.

I took my mission serious. I have not given up on love. And I work to make things as clear as possible so there won't be any space left to debate anything. Hopefully. Some will for sure.. Those are the ones that read one PDF. Listen to one song. And check out one video.

Can you see how that goes?

I can :)

I see all. I designed it.

It's all energy investments. Or withdraws. In relation to who you interact with. So who am I? You don't know? Well, be curious and nice. Is a suggestion. Strong suggestion. Very strong suggestion. If I tell you sincerely that I feel that you are a good person. Meaning I feel that I mean that. I give you very much. If you mistreat me and do me wrong? You loose bigtime. It might not happen that minute. But you just entered a spiral down a black hole by choice. Do you need to suck up to me. Be a kiss ass? Nah. I don't like that. I just wanna be treated with reverence, dignity, respect, and adoration for a job well done as in recognizing my sacrifice for the greater good. And help me to be a part of a loving experience. I am not after a Lamborghini? I am not after a mansion with 35 bathrooms. I am not after a swimming pool filled with cash. I am after a good life. But I like good quality. Which for me is often a very nice home cooked meal. That's priceless! And general friendly hospitality. And I love to give. So maybe you can help me become satisfied as I get to help you solve some karmic knots? I would love that.

I wanna feel safe. I wanna feel like I live in a safe world of love where art is in focus. Whatever that is expressed as. And I love to have a beer sometimes and enjoy fresh air with the knowledge that I've got a stable comfy bed to return to when I wanna sleep for the night.

If you cross me. I understand.

And I can help you.

But if you judge me?

You better put on that space helmet. Because the black hole awaits.

What I've got is an open mind. A vivid imagination. And a positive attitude. I believe that anything is possible. And I know that God makes everything happen all at once. Big Bang is now. It's the flickering of light winning over dark continuously. Super fast. Which makes for a frame rate not possible to experience in this density and dimension. And this is everything. Birth & Death. On and Off. With On beginning so it takes the lead. As to enable. Light. In various expression in relation to seasons. Which is yearly. Daily. Momentarily. Era. Century. All the same. But in different perspectives as to make for the same thing only experienced in variety in relation to each other. Which gives us seasons and so on. Yes it's the tilt of the earth and this and that. But all is energy in various circles of expression from the core going out. Or out going in. With the planets affecting as they move. In relation to our galaxy moving. Together with other galaxies. Everything is affecting everything. The annual occurrence of this just is what it is. That's why we have summer/winter solstice and equinox etc.. Positioning of the moon. Full moon - Go deep. New moon - Go out. A heart that cannot attract as we wish holding on to resentment. A mind that needs to be understood and let go off without judgement.

So please don't judge. Understand. Help. Forgive. Release. And stop going against the laws of the universe based on attraction. Possible from a non-conceptual source of unconditional love which just gives without the possibility to ever question. And see that it's all your doing. From what you are honest about or not. Becoming a resistance free joyful transmitter/receiver. To what you actually desire. And not a compromise to make you feel good superficially just to escape your own mission. Your own design.

No wonder you are miserable? It's you going against your own plan. Of success. Just the way you like it. If you know yourself and have a relationship as to feel what that is of course. Or! Off Course. On course. Be on. Light On.

Attitude of good will. Free will. Good is good. Did you know that?

Might come as a surprise! But good is good! Good plus good is really good!

Don't judge.

How can the people in relation to me mistreating me know about all this? From not judging. And actually engaging just a little bit with me as to see what I choose to be. And then they would (if loving, compassionate and living with a little imagination) actually help me instead of trying to destroy me. And most importantly. Not ever contacting me for several months leaving me to die.

They all know about my situation. And must make that into me being ungrateful and trying to just catch a free ride out of ignorance and bad attitude. And that's: Judgement.

Here me out. Come see me. E-Mail me? Call me? Listen to me. But no. Let's judge and kill instead. Let's make homeless instead. That'll teach him!

I don't do drugs. I do what I do. I keep a clean home. And I help other people. I am a friendly guy, internationally. Can you see that? No. Because you judge.

So do I do something now? Do I initiate something. Do I push the button on the spiritual bomb? I do that as I am writing this. Because this won't be uploaded. Until after the bang. I affirm my success in advance. Because I know it's inevitable. And then I stay positive. Take care of myself to feel peace. I make myself feel as good as I can and don't stress anything. I will take it as it comes. Because the subconscious plan, the right time. Is out of my hands.. This is universal now. No more creation.

No more need to produce. I have done more than enough. I offer more than enough. I have been given intuitive communication that transmutation.se was enough by the half of what it is right now. So I am well insured. I work for God. I work for Good. So in doing what I am doing as in what I have created I am well covered for multiple generations to be honest. I have created a legacy. No building. No logo. No trademark. No copyright. All free loving creation for a wonderful world of love. To be experienced for all.

Not to shabby..

Lisbeth promised to take care of artwork so that worry is out of the picture. All I need to take care of right now is a tensed body. I need to do some breathing. Some stretching. An ice bath perhaps. Cold showers. Which are Gold showers. It's all tension and relaxation.

When relaxed we allow. And thus receive. That's why most women receive and most men work hard. That's why very masculine women are into business and economic structures. That's why feminine men do like I do.

Masculine = Intellect

Feminine = Intelligence

Intellect = Rational, Material, Thought, Calculate

Intelligence = Emotional, Spiritual, Intuition, Sense

I don't see much change. I sense it. I don't think that much when I write. I allow for it to present itself. A identify as love. And I have a body.

Am I crazy? Nah.. Why you say that?

I live in accordance to universal creation. This is how all things come about. From me blinking my eyes to the Niagara waterfall. From a baby just about to come out thru the birth canal in the most experienced pressure as to when transmutation.se is about to hit you like a truck. I see the headlights now. I hear the horn! But I'm not afraid! Because this baby is driving.

Hey Mom! Bam!

Hey Dad! Bam!

Hey Local City! Bam!

Hey Country! Bam!

Hey World! BAM BAM BAM!

..I did it.

I did the thing Matinbum. I did it.

What is insane? Sane inside. So is that about the outside. Nah.. Inside out that's how all the magic works. Don't worry 'bout no quirks! The quirks is on God. Universal connection. Making it happen as you have done all you can. As you feel good about what you've done. As you feel satisfied with it all. As you look at it with a sense of humor. Yet in honor for doing all you can for love. That's the ticket. That's the reward. That's the come (core/corr/co)llect.

All from Soul intention. From confession. Understanding. Forgiveness. Release. Desire. Dream. Creation. Belief. Faith..

And.. Done deal.

I don't allow for destructive thoughts to linger. I change that immediately. And I don't listen to the body crying from pain. Because this is old news. It's not hurting from what is now. It's old pain. It has nothing to do with now. I listen to my heart and soul. I connect and I feel the win. One Sun Won. I am. Love. I be Love. I is Love. I do right. I am free. I am, ALL GOOD.

Too weird to live. And too rare to die.

So I'm just waiting now. For the material ticket. To Chile. Or perhaps someplace else first. But I would love to go to Chile and have myself a vacation. Avocados y Cervezas. Yo trabacho no mas..? Yeah. You get it.

Just a little reminder..

Why you wake you wake up feeling more resistance and struggle in contrast to the evening? Is because the people not doing right for themselves wake up rested as to engage in judgemental shit for breakfast.

And the day goes by and the get tired and busy. So by the evening it calms down. But! Maybe you experience another attack from nowhere all about negative energy without any contact. And that's them again.

Eating pieces of shit as late night snack.
