I feel like dying.

But I also want to live as much as possible.

And I am not complaining.

- Well have you seen the news? About all the people in Gaza?

Yes I have..

That does not change how I feel.

This is how I feel.

I am not thinking about anything in particular. And I am a very awake and aware individual.

But I know that everything new is born in darkness. And that's the tricky part living in a world that just goes on and on and on.. On the surface.

We are nature. We are life. We are love..

And so we go thru this change of season. The ascension. The most.. As we are cognitive dream beings.. How much you go thru all of that is in relation to who you are. And who you are is all in relation to your destiny this time.. Your level of development and stage of bloom in soul..

I feel like I wanna leave my body.. My body hurts. I feel the pain of the body.

But I don't identify with it. It's not my pain. I don't own that pain.

I don't own anything. I am rich.

I am identified with soul. With love. The invaluable source that makes the universe possible.

But my body is tired.. You cannot pursue your destiny without going thru what you need to go thru and that involves the body. The organs. The muscles. Everything..

And I can't satisfy my hunger. Because there isn't anything to eat that can satisfy it..

I can't have sex to satisfy it.. I can't receive money to satisfy it..

I hunger for love..

I need a refill. I need more love. I have given so much now..

And I know that all will come if I just trust that soon enough in perfect timing all will begin to change. Given the position we are in right now and how I feel I make that into the darkest hour.

And what following from this point on is the new light.

Things has to happen like this or else everything will brake.

That's the whole thing about God Speed, divine timing.

Things will come to an almost stand still before they take off again..

For everyone and everything..

The children are starving but I still want lunch..

I wonder how many will get stuck on something trivial in judgement on the website or in one of my videos? That's how people are when it strikes something inside themselves they refuse to accept. It has absolutely nothing to do with me. That has been my fear all along..

You.

That's all we can ever be afraid of in this world. Each other in misconception.

The projecting and irresponsible death machines.

Just don't jump to conclusions.

I was given a comment these days on YouTube stating that I was awarded an unofficial dumbest comment of the year in relation to me speaking about astrology on a Stone Hedge video.

People are awful.

Judgemental small minded idiots. So certain about everything. Absolutely certain..

Which in a human experience all about inside out means they are so certain about themselves all in judgement..

It has to be like that when you don't know who you are as in what you are.. You have to maintain something then. And since that is something false it will make you false and judgemental in relation to others.

That comment still hurt me. Because I am a sensitive human being.

The new will now come. It's time.

And people will get a reality check. Big time.

Just know that nobody. Nobody at all. Will ever experience and go thru what I have. In relation to destiny and what was needed as to alchemize and transform dark energy for all.

Think about that when you are at your worst experienced sensation going thru your transformation.

I know pain.

But I've had enough now I feel..

I've been on fire for many years.

And there is only one thing that soothes the burn..

Love..

I will now begin to receive is the word I'm getting.

I wonder how? I wonder why? Yesterday you told me 'bout a blue blue sky yet all that I can see..

I love lemons. 🍋

I've always had this notion that my pain is connected to my dad and his refusal to be humble.

And that his death is inevitable for my success.

But that can also be non-physical. That's up to him.. To come clean.

I feel like everyone can do that to free themselves before they leave and thus start over even tougher. As everything is about experience. If you fail you fail what you yourself signed up for. So you just let yourself down and have to do it all over again only worse.

You've got until the very last minutes to realize and understand. To forgive yourself and become free. It's your choice. As you've got free will..

The oscillations for me I believe is a connected thing between my dad and my son.

I feel that my pain and all that I go thru is his refusal to be true and my sons longing for me.

So you see how much pain is involved which he ultimately holds in his heart.

But stubborn as he is only thinking about himself this is what we together experience.

Yet all the while we get something beautiful out of it as in all of what I create. As I take responsibility in doing what is right. In the name of love.

How else would that be created?

By me feeling fantastic? Nah..

So you see the necessary sequences..

It's perfectly orchestrated.

We suffer. But for good.
When we do what is right.

I feel like it's worth it. We are worth it. For a greater good. I am willing to be put thru more and actually die physically. If that's what it takes. To make truth scream in the face of every liar.

To invade the heart of every coward..

Like the ones in Gaza shooting children in the head.

Because why?..

That's not even war. It's nothing..

Probably like the ones doing that feel about themselves..

Yet all in complete denial following something outside of themselves turning off their connection to love and truth..

You are also forgiven.

But you gotta pay.

God is juste and makes everything alright. It will not be something lightly.

You may try to rest assured. But you can't hide from God.. From yourself.. From self..

I believe you will make a great heater.

For eternity inside the core of the earth.

Like Diddy.

100% completely aware and awake in 100% pain and agony beyond what all human beings can experience together but all for you.. Forever.

Or maybe you'd like to confess it all the last minute of your current human experience?

That's pretty demanding. And if you got kids you burn them as long as they live in your lack of humility. Just like my father. Like my mother. Like my sister..

All leaving me to die as I am a threat.. Only misunderstood as I am the salvation.

I am truth. I am light. I am love.

You just don't see that in your material and ego vision..

We are not really family in that sense. As in physical. It's all soul..

And I am looking forward to connect. With my soul family..

That's God's promise I've been shown over and over. The love I've experienced in my dreams beyond what love has ever been for me. Real love! So much love! That's what I want most of all in all of my remaining existence as a human being. And with that comes everything else. The orange juice and shoes with no holes in 'em. The avocados and sunsets. The good mornings wanting to chew on your beautiful hair. The good life. Better than the life I lived when I thought that I was gonna go crazy. Now for the first time for real I will have someone that is gonna call me baby.

And mean it with all of their heart. Not a lie..

That will cherish me as I cherish myself. And I will not only cherish her I will celebrate her and adore her like you wouldn't believe!

I don't appreciate shit like that but I'll wipe her ass!

I wanna give her so much and I wanna do it together. I want us to experience more of the world and everything together. Like Bonnie and Clyde. A bit crazy too.

And I haven't met her but I feel like this match is gonna be something else!

..hehe... I mean you don't really know me.

I got some tricks.

I might have delivered everything cute with flowers and hearts and all but I have another side too..

Look at my light!

How bright is that?

There. You see.

I ain't evil. But I've got a flip side.

That I can use for fun.

And I bet she's got that too. I would like for her to be a bit like she almost scares me yet I love her so so much.. That's cool. That's fun.

How wants something all boring..

That's what we're here for right.. An adventure!

So let's do that then! Create that. Be a little wild and bold. But not destructive.

Like a little 'Fuck you!' But I have that spark in my eye. I'm all  love.

Wow.

God's promise. Perfect match! Comin' up!

..I'm gonna sneak over to the neighbors now and see if they've got some big cigarette butts I can get my hands on.. I wonder if they suspect anything? One time there was only one in there and I took it. They must have wondered??? Like..hmmm... Maybe it was a bird?

Yeah! Birds smoke themselves now.

I got three pretty big ones!

..Can you imagine if they came out when I was there with my hand in their ashtray??

O.M.G..

But they will find out from this.

I don't feel like it's stealing..

I just finish what they started. Like all I do..

22:58 now.. Gonna get some sleep.

The demons have not been visiting lately during nighttime..

Good night beautiful world. I'll see you tomorrow.. Global Reset.

If..

You lost someone during this time know that this could have had a different outcome in a greater understanding.

To be awake and aware of the planetary positions in relation to energy.

Because that's all there is.

I am sorry and give my condolences in your grief.

But it makes a great difference to be in understanding regarding the moons phases. The super moons, new & full.

The pivoting shifts that takes place.

The pain is the same.
The course of action or non-action is the same.

But what it offers is a glimpse of light which does not exist in the consciousness of the one giving up.

We are on a mission.

To affirm, acknowledge and honor that makes all the difference.

I don't know much about all of this. I am not a Tarot Wizz, I don't study the planets like that. But I keep myself updated as to what's actually going on in relation to where I am.

That's all.

We are nature.
We are God.

We are love.

The seasons come and go almost exactly the same every year. With slight shifts as to offer something new. It's a good and in fact a great idea to go with that flow. Or else the pain increases naturally.

The news reporting various catastrophes and economic downturns is just a manifestation of all of this. It's actually superficial.

The deep foundation is what you need to be aware of as to understand and be a part of LIFE.

All is yours in the blink of an eye.

Only it does not seem like that in three dimensional density which makes for our human comprehension of the illusion of time.

Rest assured.

Do your work.

And all will be well..

It's a beautiful day today with a spring feeling in the air.
October 22th 11:14, 2024.

I got the news today.

I receive it intuitively.

That's the reality.

Stay connected.
Stay on time.

Stay in faith.

Stay humble.

Stay in love.

Everything gives in an all giving universe.

Don't fight change.
Don't fight.

Love
