THANK YOU

I WILL KILL YOU

FUJIWARA AFTER PRAYER

Watt have U done 4 me lately?

Heart in mind, or mind no heart
Same old story, stand firm no start

Do you really think you're here to die
That's the devils greatest lie

Without my name all praised in love
Fire shall rain from clouds above

Because you asked for opposition
In neglect of a perfect rendition

God does not make any mistakes
So who's the idiot eating shit full cake?

Return to source, get back to humble
Or all hell begins to rumble

You don't have to mark no words
Keep an eye on silent birds

This too shall pass oh yes it will
But before that happens love will kill

Not by force and not by violence
But all because you stay in silence

Not expressing who I am
Acting like you don't give a damn

Necessary evil comes for you
As you've treated love like poo
