SELF IN CREATION - DIVINE IN FAITH

Don't Stop Affirming

WHY R U SO IMPORTANT?

B e c a u s e o f t r u t h .

Truth just is. But in life we move further and further away from it as we create a rational society based on our own laws. The universal laws are constant. They are perfect.

"- And where do I come in?.."

By understanding the universal laws. Using the universal laws. Trusting the universal laws. Breaking the rational laws. In manifested creation.

That's how you fuck the system.

That's true innovation.
Which is not about a product.

The presentation itself is proof.
With you as the evidence.

Coming from nothing. From the dark.
And blinding everyone with the brightest light.

A light so bright it will be impossible to neglect. And as this is not about a product.
As this is about the truth of all creation. The world will change.

This is the hardest thing any human being can ever do.
Yet you are equipped for it.

Because this is what you is.
This is ultimate self realization.
Becoming the light on earth.

I had a dream last night..

*I was very young.. probably about 7 or 8 years old.
And I was sitting on the floor beside the living room table in an apartment I remember we used to live in. On the table I had some music gear and I was just making some music. On the couch beside me was Xzibit.*

I asked God before I went to sleep about some form of guidance.
I asked to get a status report regarding everything happening. And when you become friends with your heart as in your intuition you know all about these lightning bolt fast answers. The answer that comes around half your question.

And it was a lot of love in it. And it said:
It's all gonna happen at once. Everything is gonna be resolved together.
When it all falls down. It shall also rise. What I make of that is just the same as the sun breaking dawn on the other side of the earth. It's just a new day all the time.
Without faith we follow the night and die.

With faith we join the new day.
We follow the light.

So whatever you do and whoever you are. Affirming the good let's you hang around. Which cannot happen without communication. A relationship with God.
And what you need you will receive. You might think you need this and that. But I got what I needed last night. I got reassurance. I got support. Which made me feel excited and joyful about the future yet to come. That's priceless.

In an all attractive universe.

If you don't get that? You will.
Because this is what you need to learn.
To never give up on love. No matter what.

Keep praising love. By affirming it.
And thou shall receive.
It's happening..

The New Day, The New Hope, The Return
