..EVER BEEN? YOU SHOULD VISIT?
SUPER CRISP & CLEAR!

YOU DON'T KNOW WHAT THAT IS?

MAYBE YOU SHOULD BEGIN THERE THEN?

Nature is natural. Can you believe that?

All is attraction and everything happens in perfect timing which is in relation to us being ready. That's it. In regards to everything.

So if a woman wants to have a child but does not feel comfortable with delivering that child thru her body the natural way. And seeks to extract that life from surgery thru her belly? Is her not being ready. That's a little girl afraid, not trusting nature. Not trusting herself. Her own system. Her own body. And this life, this child will come into the world with a mother more a little girl than a woman. But all in lack of humility because she's got long hair and tits. All superficial.

When a couple tries to have a child but works really hard at it for 12 years. They are not supposed to have a child. Why? Because they are not ready. That means the they do not know themselves. They do not have a deep and honest relationship with themselves and thereby not with each other and nature corrects that be preventing effortless love to happen. It starts long before but they are in such misconception and also in lack of humility as to what love actually is.

The staff at the hospital allowing for the choice to surgically have the baby or to give birth naturally thru the vagina is in total misconception and in lack of humility regarding their personal relationship. So they do not know what love is either and treats nature like some fuckin' McDonalds have it your way spoiled little girl shit.

The kids whom aren't capable of playing outside with the other kids having fun in say like the forest are kids that most certainly have not been read to by their parents. It's all TV and video games. Which there is nothing wrong with in moderation but the kids receive a limp imagination from parents full of shame and irresponsibility reading wonderful stories for their children. We all learn from honest, vivid, engaging, true love.

Are you sick and tired of the world and how things work? Does it feel like we are working against ourselves? Well we are. Because we are nature. But strive to get as far away from it as possible in superficiality. International idiocracy. We just want all the time. Give me! I want! Like spoiled brats. And when it comes to children they are not cute puppies. They are not supposed to fill or mend anything. They do not have a function in society other than being closer to truth and love. Which WE can learn a lot from. But hold immature in our own INCREDIBLY immature behavior.

IN. LACK. OF. HUMILITY.

I child is born with no state of mind
Blind to all the shit of mankind

Concrete jungle.

Let's release another shampoo/conditioner line!

With Vitamin Fuck you and Minerals from dead babies.

The reaction is from the EGO.
The response is from the SOUL.

The Ego is all is offense. Offended.
And most importantly, is all in need.

Of self love reassurance. A safe and trusting environment.
From within. IN relation to self.

Which makes for a very loving attraction.
And more life is effortlessly created.

Naturally.

- Well you don't have a Vagina and just stands there feeling no pain!

I am born a man. I don't have a choice.
This is you and you.

Be responsible.
In relation to yourself.
All the way.

And a very supporting man will be there with you.

You are the mother.

THE MOST IMPORTANT SOURCE OF LOVE.

#1.

Do things wrong and project that on the child resulting in correction in misconception for perhaps half of their life.

All in immature behavior not being humble and coming correct yourself.
Making yourself ready to actually become pregnant.

Together with somebody who's done the same, as the universe is all about natural attraction. And will be a perfect match in relation to the most true love.

Or..

Just have a baby!

To fill the blanks.

To feel good about yourself.

Your a mom now!

Superficially that is! And your a dad just like that!

And let's destroy this child in lack of humility as we fail to know anything about projection/reflection. The child must be broke! Let's drug it!

And..Relax...

Watch TV for 6 hours.

Gain weight.

And just don't care and participate in life at all...

Mmmmm... Let's order another pizza on credit.

You don't produce and harvest life.
A life is love.

A soul being.

All energy, all emotional. All humane.

Just like you.

*Surgery is necessary in regards to complications. Vagina stretchers are advised.
Please don't sue me and my penis. I am just bringing the truth.

..and a mother thing.

Having troubles breastfeeding can be a result of narcissism.

You see that when you are in focus of performance instead of giving it is very natural to become tensed. And this prevents natural flow.

So to explain this as clear as possible.

It's about the one in need of eating.
And not about the one providing the food.

I learned that working in restaurants.

And from experiencing huge egos all in reaction and tension,
making everything about them.

Merry Christmas everyone!

And God Bless Tits and Ginas and all of that Good stuff!

XOXO!
