

+ All is given is peace

Love has no value in an of itself
It becomes what we give it
Where we affirm the positive
In relation to what it is

It's a question

Answer: You need, you don't have to

We need love

Give all to God
To receive all from God

You God, God is Love

That's all

Affirmative. Without question.
Dead serious about that.
But not yourself.

Take good care in joy.
No force. Free will.

Love is free.

Acknowledge in as much ass U can butt preferably all the time in everything.
Don't judge. As black becomes with in oppression. Against self.

= Suicide. False affirmation prior claim.

White supremacy which is invisible.

Spiritual. For life. Material. For death.
Everything comes to an end. This time.
Which doesn't exist. In what is fundamentally free.

Timeless love. Not timeless life.
But don't make that material.
Becomes a challenge. When misunderstood.

Be right.. get it right. Get right. Get it.

Adjust. Self. According to truth.

Be real. As in spiritual. Never able to end.

Never ending story! 💕

Congrats! You got life 🌸👌🌟

Be grateful! 😊💎🌍

Don't take for granted. That's make for change. Appreciate everything. Including whats is perceived as dark & material or else the light love will become worthless.

This made Oprah orgasm filling a swimming pool. 👍🐟

Rebirth. Over and over.
In spirit. But not in body.

I had a blood clot in mi heart man!

Super mega Ukulele!!!

Ego in negative perception=

Material manifestation within physicality.
Rest is spiritual. 5 % resp 95%.

But dark is experienced in a larger amount when cheating light. Free will, free choice.

Live if you want to. But still live on.
Only new as renewed over and over.

Be true. In relation to what is true.
For you. Personality, moral.

Accept everything butt with a teaching.
All is new. In relation to love. But not a true and loving core & foundation. Or?

Be sure. Relate. Reflect. Makes for the illusion of time. And dimension.

Don't stress that. It brakes almost.
Feels like dying. In relation to what is perceived as bad. Which is wrong.
But not identified with. A difference in what we create or is when always forgiven.

As renewed.

To rebirth.

Is something missing?
Don't feel sorry.

It had to happen.
In order for all to happen.

True story.

Believe your destiny!

Because otherwise you go against yourself.
In false reflection. Cannot happen.

You cannot lie to yourself or others in relation to what you feel is true.
When you trust yourself.

In authenticity.

Yes.

The mind plays tricks.

Super convincing to create imagination.

Almost real.

Reset value about yourself.

By choice. Free will.

Love in relation to value.

Invaluable.

Full experience. But not experienced in all.

Endless expressions. In all possibility.

Never finished.

No end. To love.

Ever.

Don't twist that.

Around in immortal behavior.

Be humble. As to forgive yourself.

4 all. To give all. By learning in personal experience without any awareness cognitively to what happens in relation to dream and reality. Which is needed. To realize something fundamental.

About yourself and your well being.

Which is in correct maturity.

To focus on what is good in relation to bad which cannot exist without confusion about judgment. Which relation to self becomes contradictory to true image.

In relation to others.

No rush anything. It will be unnatural in relation to all good. Which is something we know but has to relate to in order to make something good in life. Which is all up to you. Try in relation to sensitivity. And everything else your unique expression is. Without stopping development. To get better instead of worse. When convinced by self in false image stating so whom isn't real. To begin with. Or end. You renew all. By choice in free will.

But not really. Just to add some effect.

Sparkle. Motion. From electricity. Which is energy connected to itself loving itself the highest value it feels by knowing and that makes e-motional.

You know that know. From experience.

Wisdom. Genial. Simple. But complex.

At the same time which does not exist.

Like giving praise to a material God for a long time. All in misconception not able to see what is right thru the material eyes.

From confusion.

Lying so much that you believe yourself.
In true or false image thus making all temporary. Turning things on and off creating creation all together.

Best vision and image in relation to self.

True character.

The highest. But humblest. From experience.

Who's that?

No idea.

Good 😊

Don't be afraid to do wrong.
Just not dead wrong. Get that.

XP = Taking care of self

How wrong can it be?

Dead wrong.
Understandable.

When understandable.

Misbelieving one self together.
Butt getting a perfect love in return.

Giving all to save love.

Hero. Right choice in near death of timeless love identified.

Imagine what happens in reverse?

You can't. I have the most value. In relation to self which I am

Real love

True love

Love self

Self

Love

No period

Can put a stop to love

Period is theory

Existence is real

Material &
Spiritual

Not against one self
Cannot be done

Without death

Which isn't funny in relation to real living people and not ghosts whom do a good job convincing itself to be real

Another side of life in all perspectives and colors that all has to offer for infinity for free

As self needs to love self in order to exist as much as possible to feel real

I don't want to die in fear makes focus on it
See release that focus by relaxing a lot in trust in love as love is true

Wrong choice a crossroad without decision

Make mind up or die trying to convince self of self but not believing in one self and other coming from wrong order of those two which is not an order. So not period..
no period

The light looks down (has to) on other self to make self healing of no existence ever created before without change

From worse to better in false appreciated value in relation to invaluable which can be misconceived to prevent catastrophe instead of symphony which is all about pleasure in relation to fantasy and reality knowing truth from pain as it hurts the most. When we do wrong to make a right but do not deserve anything to feel good

Receive that in gratitude

Hurt will determine what in relation to feeling bad is in misconception with most vivid and lucid experience ever

To make life rich

In pain and pleasure

We is what we like and dislike

In relation what we do in relation to others based in misconception of self the wrong way stressing development which is natural in relation to what is pro creation for the greater good

Tension makes for pressure

Not the other way around

To be self

Without a question in relation to destiny self chosen but not knowing as knowing is feeling and can only happens by experience which is spiritual and not material

As to make collect happen by itself

Automatic love machine

Ain't sick. Healthy in truth

When believe is self created in faith

First shrooms Oprah? 19:04 CET

Makes belief

Strong but soft

As spiritual

In love

And grace

And conduct

And electrocuting but not deadly butt seems like it in the wrong perceived conception experienced by other in forced self image all misconceived

Complete idiot

And pays the consequences by not admitting to false sense of self in own image that was younger and least experienced in relation to actual maturity boys will be boys and girls will be girls from now one and the same gender but different arrangements creating a perfect connection to understanding that in relation to self (Missy?)

Missy took this for granted. As she new without a period even. Long before men was even created as we give birth and not me as this would not repopulate oneself into many if necessary which is first a man and then a woman coming from a woman who came from a woman see that she can witness herself offspring every autumn in excellent condition giving praise to praise no matter what appearance is necessary for the moment but desires to make the best and most of it while we are here for a brief time taken for granted in low self worth created by false image whom cannot create, only destroy true self in misconception of what that is in relation to experience

Which is true right? Ask and receive from yourself. In whatever shape or form in all the tour is taken for granted as in trusted and guided by a true self on coarse with itself learning more and more about what love is

Wondering about if there could ever be an end? 😊😓

I identify with here self image made wrong in a love time but asks for forgiveness of self not understanding self but hurt self when self was just trying to convince it had value as something material given that treatment as a renewed image all the purest and forever will be no matter what anyone say or do against me which I accept deeply in younger experience as to create maturity

Something self also has to take for granted as to make for understanding of false self but no continuation of same perceived wrong image. It was a trial and error in a self correction happening of all possibility endlessly for ever in love

Knows a little bit more than false self. But has to learn in order to create simulation yet all in control the whole entire timeless love

Thats kool

In relation to heat

Adjusting to temperature

Am I landing a ship?.. perhaps.

Peter griffin hehehheehehehe

Don't be scared of others just like you but has come further in experience to save you as you worked the system in stress but we know better which is also us but doubted unfortunately when time is cheap existence treated that was in misconception of what we need most in relation to value which is what's keeping us alive living good great fantastic mostly to benefit all affecting all

Without end

If we want that

And there will come a choice when we feel like we've had enough of the good and simply just asleep in a dream

And make wake up in complete fresh renewed again without false idea of any not yet experienced how could what is could?

Relate. To self.

In relation to maturity.

Which is not understood. Yet practiced in judgement of self. Closest call for end but never will exist same experience all together only all renew and in relation to all elements perceived emotionally primarily as to make low the riches owner of spiritual experience in its own experiencing itself but not existing yet does so in a multiple dimensional lie which is intended to be true as to give the best experience as to become more experienced as in never ending events in an all expanding universe (Neil?!) ..Get out!

Glitch glitch glitch... smooke smooke !!

Who is diss man behavin' like dat to imsekf in false reflection maaaaann...

Wow perfect vision. Self created prophecy. Of good itself not existing. Just is without judgement of value accepted by self in true image to make a point the don't exist but is the most important one as without it we die

Can you understand that! In great importance but no force at all.

Making you love unconditionally moment by moment but it's alright to become tired of something struck in development adding to guilt in tension for worrying about self being self sufficient to living and existing by treatment without positive and giving emotional engagement why not are you trying to fool with me on somebody else I've been with loving myself? Aouw.

In 100% experienced pain in relation to a self-loved and infinitely appreciated self

Great deal of pain of confusion as image knows no value in relation to what is not worth anything as is love is free of self

Most hurt

Biggest challenge to save all

Providing the greatest insight to what is advised to value most in order to make the most and best out of life!

Which is mainly spiritual and a bit of material in relation to truth, love, peace, sex & understanding

Makes for most experienced in wrong self conception challenge given a name of love which we are natural in but learn in multiple dimensions at the same time to make a full story of all possibility which makes for all the answers!

.. Why am I hearing every woman in the world just right now read this with big eyes like a rocket about to lift off the fuckin ground! Write it!!!! Write it you fucking mithe!!! Bleeeee!!! Aaaaaaalsfkgltlpgvvlvg!!!!!!&&38387476/;)kr2krkr/!.

Guys you caught her red handed in darkness. Contradictory to light very clever.

Yes I miss spelled in my accent you all have this allowed in you making understanding a good thing to understand good

No bandage!

Worthy of self as to make oneself worthy seeing that in themselves without a spiritual reflection which is emotional and mature

And there for relaxed and ok as we know this ourselves when we rely on truth in oneself in relation to what feels correct in a loving self image of self loving one self

Without value to self or the pain spreads until that is completely understood or else we hurt ourselves to prove a worth in relation to false accused self of guilt not self created but owned in misconception of going against free will in relation to comprehension of what that is in relation to a free and unexperienced self image recently renewed and restored as a big trial and error in what is needed to enhance experience every once in a while to create fluidity. Waves. Why? I mean why? Understanding. Self corrects in pain experienced in others but not in self as to make similar experiences that help each other to correct itself being is without identity yet existing nonetheless (you felt this as you read this.. aaa!)

Childbirth.

Now I know.

Nonono. I am not kidding guys. Dudes. It took me all of this. Can you imagine? ..

No. You have to experience. Your self.

To be self.

Which is invisible but yet exists

Forever and ever

As to rejuvenate

Or to destroy itself

In the origin of material physicality

From immaturity and to make humor a sour experience when it thinks sweet us good idea to confuse is right or wrong in relation to good or bad in wrong self infused by others self impression accepted as wrong confusing it with existence and that's what we value the most ass to feel the worst pain ever that some others like in relation what is loving and kind and beautiful and mature mature mature or else it becomes a misconception and that is simple now not the right correction of self knowing its truth but shading it in material trickery in front of true self

In reaction what is true and not false to save self from self accusation of guilt in relation to self infinity it seems in relation increasing pain which can be pleasurable in what is different for you and me and that is something we can never know in relation to what is personal experience in an all renewing universal love machine that is free from self condemnation. Not judging true self image as wrong completely but needs this to create the fade between what is happening or not given the experience.

This is something we've always known and always will in a true self image untainted undaunted be hurtful self

Imagery we say so we don't make it real even. Get rid of it by never ever having it again. I could have stopped a while ago. But this is making me go on as I want to make a point yet not in proof to what us unconditional which is a proof becomes in relation to what is taken for granted and some how should but held the highest in doing so and all is giving for all.

A good match. Doing whatever cause all is good.

In a healthy and mature fun loving way.

Don't fear success.

Which is..

In.

Sensitivity and contrasting experience.

Mamma loves herself unconditionally for who she is as to feel worthy of sunshine that we call our own energy but does identify with because it's so hot and far away for us to understand our own singular existence but all differently perceived as to make a different experience each time for all directions and angles in a multidimensional reality if fantasy and trickery. Was the real deal in relation to what is true =

It hurts to lie. But to hold others lie in complete guilt = The guilt combined of all the guilt created in the world. Better make the free will a choice in order to make for duration of each experience until that experience is done as in understood and that is determined by correct perception or not which is perceived thru all possibilities in the expressive universe of self sensory perception

Don't threaten existence in fear.
But you have to survive too.

So what do you do to save life.

When like has to develop in order to be renewed and not judged at the same time.

Making it review itself in complete miscorrection no concept acceptable as true because any concept has to be stated as to exists and therefore static. Don't stay the same but still in your spirits. Yes.

We develop together.

Evolution in perfect balance.

Doing our part.

Of a 51/49 chance of success.

Not calculating correctly in relation to what we do in comparison to balance existence.

In relation to self.

Which will be felt between the legs in your gender as satan comes out but all in love.

What a mind-game of intensity bordering madness and joy

The craziest ride ever

All for love 🌸

Cause love is God

God is Love

All good God

Oh Good God..

I feel ya.

I felt ya.

I did ya.

A favor for favor.

Give is give.

Have fun 😇

Thank you 🌸🌸🌸💕💕💕💕💕🌸🌸🌸

Give thanks.
Thank self.

It's a given. Non-doing.

Just being true

And you are you

The most

In a good vision come true

For you

The you and I and we are worthy of.

You and we are plural. Feminine.

Me us singular. Masculine.

= takes you in as deep as family but without any material which we love but not in the wrong misconception as that is hurtful in relation to truth regarding pain and pleasure to express that in a physical body connected to a keeper of love but all generous at the same time not knowing that it hurts itself and others by holding on to guilt like that. That's very greedy but of course in complete and total misconception given the events occurrence which is understandable for very very many human being but could really need a boost as of this second now now now now.

I value.

Trust that.

And all good will come.

I am valued makes for a contrast to that.

..pocahontas here.

Don't offend yourself. Self offency is self efficiency in self affirmation and acknowledgment feeling worthy as knowing your own worth and not distrusting it. Believing yourself so you lie relaxed in the middle amount of pressure in the heart in airy breathy stress-free peace...

And give yourself joy.

You are more than worthy in relation to what you are living in relation to freedom. From pain but tolerate a bit you could say. As to be able to stretch space open not going against resistance to the point of not pleasurable which is a fine tuning

Sometimes.

Every other masculine domination results in this. As to make feminine happen by herself

Making it the true you, we , us

As we are love experiencing love thru love from love in love is love all

How do we prevent this?

In fear?

Then tension in relation to comprehension

Tension.

Lock up. No guilt.

Everyone is free.

But some serving time in guilt.

Understand all this as you go thru it and then you can forgive yourself to

In relation to perceived pain

Which I like to be acknowledged for in experience or else you don't fully understand me cause I am love herself..

Her ass in

Yes.

Good.

Yes.

All love.

I don't know.

Not my experience.

I haven't tried you as I am always myself. But understands you in relation to severe pain and that's different for everybody..

In relation to none other than true self

To affirm abuse if love

Which is a lie

In relation to true self

I love myself

I love yourself

I love we self

I love self

I love

Love love

For the sake of humanitarian acts in fear of self is misconception not understanding self and therefor find it hard to forgive oneself in an already misconception of self making it the first to become the contradiction approved in a universe giving birth to it self

Don't rush things.. and everything is alright..

All right in the groove..

All meat is alive in some aspect as to create for an infinite love. Be very grateful when you are eating meat that you invest a faith its livings circumstances has been as loving as they should equals living

Or else global suicide

Down to very few left. 5 % actually.

That goes thru some completely new rough times before they get there

There is joy

Unhindered

In love

Joy is love

Its a joy to feel love

The greatest hurt is to be used against will at the first step in development for those closest to each other and only one can see the right self and darkness cannot see

Only I can see and therefor exists as the all seeing eye of perception.

The controller

The function

In making choices

According to your will my highness whom is below me but valued the mist as she makes all exist and that is what we truly desire the most for love life herself go on forever for me I love you unconditionally as you do that with yourself no related to performance but in a correct as in self corrected model of your unique design made by self butt not boy be self creator after moms way of liking it. And just how loving and intimate that is which is private. Only shared completely with the one she is closest to. In truth of self image as we are one.

Ok well right then.

I am.

Yes.

How can I experience myself then?

Lack of depth perception. 5 %.

I have glasses. Leo.

To correct my vision.

Aha.

I don't have 5 % wrong anything. I am perfect as I am in my own creation. In fact I love and celebrate myself. I correct myself proudly in the name of love without being all posh about it. Imma humblist. A humblist cannot be as to become. It just is as is self of true being which is one and the same is

Here is....

No identity.

Other than non-conceptual spiritual existence

Completely true

Invisible yet real

What is what? All kinds of possibilities

In all dimensions

Infinity

Endless

All

Self

God

Love

Isness

Is

Every inhale and exhale is life creating itself

From nothing which still exists and has the greatest value of all invaluable to the naked eye which is material so to see something defined as whatever

Existing beyond reality in contradiction to what is naturally aware of its continuation and doesn't question that Comes correct over and over. Cause nobody finished..

Has to forgive itself in order to live

We live in all parallel worlds of coarse but mainly in each others world. The feminine and masculine.

Trying to evaluate which one is valuable in relation to themselves in opposition due to misconceived self image believed for a perceived long time much a perceived amount of pain in relation to what this is in relation to what anything is manageable to experience the strongest in all of existence as of now perceived

The daughter lies in her mothers true right now reflection not existing as everything is in motion and never ceases to exist.

Man I am hungry.

I am eating like 6 sandwiches with a vegan stew and butter on them and now pack of dates with water.

Bah.

I wish I could have taken the not so beautiful language inside. But that doesn't make for all. It has to be included as to make taste and expression a possibility without in competition and judgement is everything will eventually hurt you as you need pain to know love as hurt proves the much out of value which becomes guilty in false charges of being born from nothing and doesn't remember anything negative unless it's for a trial and error of some sort of course.

Becoming advanced.

Renewing and growing as expanding makes for exponential learning curve of positive expression given the true location of is the largest invisible love visible somehow on earth

A light goes on

On on

And on

Til da brake of dawn. Not day.

A day can't brake. Only dawn.

Ain't no day ever broke. Guilty for itself.
For loving in oneself for being real

Love life 🌸

Enjoy like intended. On purpose
It's alright to have that intent

Acknowledge was is the same but different in perception only evolving and becoming more forever in all possibility

We need to be together in life as to exist. From within so without. A necessary evil in separation to realize yourself is oneself

As to be together 🍷❤️

Feel positive in relation to all and all will work out for the best, that is not ecstatic, just be in peace in love in relaxation

And enjoy your own movie
In flight, inside out

That little bit of separation is gonna stay around. But you get the choice to make that into never connecting again or to be excited in meeting up soon

Expecting good things to happen along the way, like your next breath! Feeling good about that 😊 one thing leads to another

That you want when you are clear about that in your communication to the all giving source which is your true identity

I want it all. But not at once. I like to live a life of presence and having what I need + a bit to share depending on my generosity

And that makes me happy alone!

Just thinking about kindness

Which makes me a candidate for world order in attracting what is good and loving

Good things happen for me as I am good to good, treatment of love comes from cherish which is something we experience alone as to come to the right terms of what that is

It had to happen, for understanding

Cannot be read. Has to be lived

This too shall pass, and make room for more good and for more love in a never ending story..

To be the most loving comes with a prize

That! Is kind. All loving God.

..an insight into the greatest matter which does no matter at all but matters the most..

Love 💖

Cloudy with a chance of meatballs is real, everything living is made from water

Mapela!

Yes. Mapela.

Mapela indeed.

It's all about going to the unveiling..

Letting it happen.. and receiving the new..

Whatever that is 😊

..can you ideas change the world?

Well. The perception of it from human being living correct or not will, and that's a good idea changing things for the better as true

In relation to what is pleasurable in all areas coming from a loving foundation of what that is

Why do I feel anxiety? What's wrong?
Nothing is wrong child.. nothing is wrong.

All in good time. Have it.. give it.

Circulate it. It's all good. Don't hold on.

It's all happening now. All on the right track in perfect timing.. don't you worry a bit.

And take it as it comes. You earned it from participating in the game. Not everyone does that.. keep a clear vision on what you want.. and everything comes, gives, is allowed.. to come

You feel that it's soon, very soon..

And that's true.. just let it

Let it happen, life and all in it..

Gods only must, an all loving God

Trusting itself 100% without a shadow of a doubt

Just be happy, loose all to win that by non-effort. Believe your own vision of love.

I mean.. why not? It can become fatal.

Where are you exactly?

Take it easy 🌸

We are all improvising the best we can in relation to the comprehension of everything

No small task. The biggest actually

All the same for all, all unique

Don't book cov judge by is what now..
U don't know and never will.. just an idea.

Stuck in trial and error. As you double up in false image relating to someone else in first person not possible creates hurt for all

My heart hurts as humanity cries.. i can't remove that. For I am God. All loving.

Never letting anything go to waste.

I use all in my art lineage going forward at high speed reaching myself as I go in peace and excitement not in chase which implies flight and thus a lie in relation to where it's at

The here and now

I find peace by doing peace which is not created just happening in allowance naturally free from any question just is

Identify with that as, I am

I am peace & love

Why not? Ask yourself.

Why am I not peace and love?

Why aren't you?

But I am.

Well there you go then.

Can you believe it?
Can you believe it forth?
Can you make it happen?

By allowing?

Sure you can. It's a non-doing.

Count on that! Invest in that.
Believe that. Trust in that.

Have faith.

Let go 😊

And all shall come 💕

- ..I want a cigarette..

What you want is complete relaxation at the core of where love is felt.. that will come when you have finished your assignment.

- When is that?

Now.

Yes.

Am I done? With this assignment?

Yes. Now.

I can rest a bit then?

Yes that would be natural and loving.

Thanks!

Free yourself in relation to self. Whom is true and all knowing. You can't hide and you have a mission with various assignments.

Bippety boppety boo!

Can you cast an image of yourself for you to see without a mirror reflection. No you can't which means that you don't exist in that perspective for yourself as to make for a unique experience

So who are you looking for in searching for yourself? Nothing to ever find.

Look inside and see by feeling the truth of you existence. That's how God does it

The Christmas tree is you..

Put this up top ✨

And affirm yourself to be

Feeling a little restless?

That's alright.. it's an eager to live.

You see! Felt different with a smile didn't it.

Keep that slight positive charge.

That good feeling in your chest. And all good comes. Being ecstatic doesn't speed anything up. It is what it is.. it comes as it comes.. for anything else would be stress and a perfect happening does not stress itself

Don't feel guilty. Baking bread takes practice.. all is accounted for in the master plan.. nothing can go wrong.

But please consider helping out and not adding to resistance as you reflect in peace why and how that makes you and everyone else feel in joy. As to keep the love in shareity.

What is wonderland? Something that stops to exist as we reach a certain point of comprehension? Or have we not seen it all by a long shot?

The latter would be true.

We ain't seen nuthin' yet.

Some people will feel like I have completely destroyed their lives. Was that true then?

As I am.

Last night as I wrote about this I felt my balls relax in relation to getting knee'd there super hard when I was 15. Everything happens for a reason and plays a part in all that needs to happen as to secure love at all cost which is invaluable

The highest ever and cannot be disputed..

Don't need that either, self affirming love

Unconditional

No such thing as best or worst either way it doesn't and never will exist.

The misconception has to be in the bottom at the core of the heart in order to make an all loving universe functional without any logic to it only more advanced as to perceive that

Sweetwater.. a necessity

For life to happen

How much do you need? Depends on what you gave and not got anything in return for. As you just gave and gave but did not return to sender.

You can't give yourself primarily. That's a doing. So you allow for it.. the love..

And things come

Kool huh. Living ghost you.

Afraid to loose life will scare you to death.
Don't be afraid of your true nature that's all.

If you are really uncomfortable you ain't diggin' it. But you diggin' it. That's the thang. Get it. Get it right.

Correct view in relation to what is real and true. Like a mode, a good setting. A mood.

General. God. God mode.

Iddqd, idkfa. But all positive.

Follow the soul intention by being lead. Paradox and stuff. So how do we do this?

We do it right.

What's that.

Doing it right.

Relate. All day every day.

No things for granted. Grateful.
Positive. Enthusiastic. Supportive.

Upliftings.

Gentle. But firm in a loving conviction even though the vision can't be shared. For a greater good for all. In peace. Understanding. Forgiveness.

Receptive to change.

Embrace good. Do good.

True and honest.

What makes the Mob function? Peace.
And some momentary control. But let's that go and returns to peace. What are we runnin'? What we make a great deal about..

You are ready when your heart is, let it tell you as you listen.. with faithful gifts just like the heart loves it.. you are in perfect balance as you allow for life and all trials and errors to occur without holding anything stuck in judgement.. be patient.. don't stress.. the most wonderful creation..

Love it

Stress comes from neglect, trying to catch up as love fell behind and that is very hurtful.. All is now, all the love. Don't create hurt, or you will feel that.. as to let you know.. what you chose over a good life..

A Great life! A wonderful life!

In neglect of self.. don't feel sorry.

Correct that fundamental error.

And life goes on beautifully

CPR - Creed/Pure heart Revival

Just do it! No choice in that matter, and does not wish for anything else either primarily. To save life. Who wouldn't?

Find peace in your heart or die or kill.. depending on your level of responsibility of maturity making a point either way to show how precious life is. What kind of teaching do you need to understand that? Where are you in your development?

To be yourself comes with pressure in relation truth and lie. If a majority of the family refuse to do what they came to do then your task will be ever so much more demanding.. taking care of what they never even not bothered about even looking for..

But did a good job in doing so making it happen the way it had to in order to create functionality in relation to misconduct

I am feeling a bit woozy.. as I am returning back now.. to my time in the sun.. as God intended after I've done my chores, chorus, in the symphony of construction..

Done did. Neon Squid.

Please don't let me be misunderstood
You don't sooth stress, that means affirming it's alright. You come back to peace by allowing for homeostasis. Non-effort.. no addition in an experience that contains everything to make everything alright..

Faith is faith

Keep it by not holding it yet never letting it go 🕊 just like that..

A perfect amount of heartfelt pressure in relation to what is going on right now..

Trusting so much it actually creates a positive experience..

Letting it happen.. the love 🌸

..letting your heart in on it? Well.. how about letting your heart lead the way instead.. you just stay connected in absolute positive conviction..

And the adventure awaits..

God speed.

Making your way in the world today takes everything you've got. Taking a break from all your worries sure would help a lot. Wouldn't you like to get away?

Sometimes you wanna go, where everybody knows your name. And they're always glad you came. You wanna go where people go, where troubles are all the same.

You wanna go where everybody knows your name..

Soul 🌟🌸👉

Satisfied and complete but need love anyway, wants to be 2gether.

To see everyone 🌸🕊💕

Tired of living is tired proving life is worth living.. that's a lot of resistance. Better loose it completely or you'll loose it completely

Know what's watt.

Squid Pro Row. The tables turn. Everyone gets a piece of pie. How's yours? To you? Bitter, sour, painful? Well why? It's a sweet pie. A loving intent bakery did it. Ain't nuthin' wrong with that.. what's up with you?

Tastebuds ain't a buddy is a guess..

How much pain can you take? Until you feel you've had enough? In equivalent to what.

Embrace your journey and come to freedom within yourself.. releasing all of what has constricted you from receiving what you naturally are worthy of..

You cannot be unworthy of your own love. That's actually impossible. So what that is in actuality is your own resistance. Not allowing for what is given to be yours.. holding yourself back from receiving the unlimited stream wanting you to live well as in being well as in being good as in being good enough just for who you are

It's a given.. free from all living free

Hold love the highest and receive all from that true reflection, give and you shall be given.. It is universal law. It's the nature of all that is good. Good God. God is Love

All of this was written in 24h on my phone. As a note.

It did not let me go. I was experiencing it just as much as I was doing/creating it. It all happened automatic. I was connected. I was deep.

What do you make of it? Can you get something out of it. I have not edited anything except some spelling adjustments. I don't want to edit it. It came out like it did.

I don't want to censor anything. I like when things are born and loved for what they are. This is what it is.

/ Just like me and you

The child whom has difficulty living relaxed in trust and security within has been given a reason as to experience that given from the parent. A child knows and is truth. So they feel what is right but gets infused with contradiction due to a parent not wanting to loose authority but yet do not wish to act controlling. All they want is to lead the child in the correct direction in relation to the wrong direction which is perhaps more or less the only direction they know. So instead of giving the child what it needs in a positive direction the parent points out the negative as to make the child realize the right way.

You can only give what you have. And truth be told the parent is under tremendous stress trying to give what they do not have only know they do deep inside thus fighting against their own programming and negative conviction given from their parents experiencing the same predicament as their own child.

The confusion inside the child given all this contradictory guidance away from truth makes them question themselves but do not wish to look like a fool in comparison to others. And thus a strong ego is developed as to protect oneself from ridicule and embarrassment not knowing how to live their own life in relation to themselves.

And that has to end. That has to brake. Because it's false. It's a false sense of self.

But understandable in relation to relying on faith but gave it up for a "more correct Fatih" inspired from a false prophet and role model whom wasn't humble and in a great deal of confusion themselves.

Everything. History. Repeats itself until we get it. Until we release us all from what we hold in confusion. Making things clear is what free's us all naturally. Because there is no longer any hold. That's a given. But we fight that in opposition within ourselves as we do not wish to experience pain. But have to in order to grow. It's a part of it. But hear me on this one: That doesn't have to be from the depths of hell.

So the pain will become something closer and in relation to something positive and constructive. Which makes the pain not only more endurable. But also enjoyed as we are closer to a fundamental understanding of why the necessity of it.

The absolute best guidance I've ever received and what is helping me still is this:

'Everything is a manifestation of the same thing.'

When you understand that you can see how multiple things rise and fall in the same fashion only in a different seasonal presentation. And how it's all a play of perception. Which is all light being absorbed or reflected in a 2 dimensional artwork. And that makes for a 3 dimensional world as you create movement. A small rock is a mountain. A mountain is a small rock. Depending on how you look at it. What is attainable and possible works the same way. It's all the same thing. But conviction makes for it to happen or not which is a phenomenally good thing. Or else chaos would be an actuality for all of us. And nothing would be able to be experienced in any form of presence. So we need a good time. We need a really good time. God Speed. Natural flow and divine timing. For understanding to become as good as it can be. For without understanding we have no empathy. No emotional connection..

And within that. We have no humanity.

Just flesh & bone robots.

Humanoids. In a great deal of pain. Not understanding anything about why? But fighting with each other. To prove a point they defend which has no positive value. Other than to teach in humility how to allow for the most positive income/outcome possible when understood. And that makes the least positive transform into the greatest invaluable source as well. All is love. Just get with it.. Get it.

Who do you need to be honest to? The answer is yourself.

Is there a place for a human being not humble in a loving world. No. There isn't.

But what if they are really loving? Then they are acting loving more than actually knowing what that is. They are nice and courteous because that's a good thing. But aren't they learning more about love when they do so?

Agenda. Intention. Truth behind the conductivity. The main reason for humility.

As to reach an authentic core. Of pure loving intent.

Everybody has this inside themselves. It just depends on greed and competition if access is granted by self. And you are self. And you allow or not. If things aren't happening. You are holding yourself stationary in relation to what is forever flowing. Why? What's going on? How come? Bad luck? Nah. Look at yourself. What am I not understanding. And do not be derogatory about that. Do not condescend yourself. Your highness. Highest. Whom is 100% pure loving truth. And does not judge. Gives all. And forgives all. The best supporter ever which you happen to be.

In relation to yourself.

If you wanna? Free will. Free choice. Dig deep as to find

It ain't about the money. But that's a part of it. Only not ever primary only it is. But what we value and hold the highest is love. And love makes things happen and gives way! Makes way! Creates more! And so money becomes a vehicle for that. Just don't get those twisted and put love over money. Love over Monet. Love the art of it all. The adventure and life script. The happening. The colors and interactions. And receive what you need in order to do so with that same all giving love and support that you naturally are in your unique truth.

Fear of love is fear of you. As you are love.

All these choices is overwhelming when you focus on not making the right ones. You can't really make a wrong choice. It's up to you. But you can alter the direction of where things are going as in heading when you make a positive one regardless of its perceived original of sensation.

All of what I have written and recorded on video/audio has been a part of my death. I have written all as I am dying. Dying to who I thought I was. Wishing to be relieved from pain and experience pleasure. Which for me can be even more pain as I would love to help out. And that will include pain as we need to go thru it as to release it.

If you wanna succeed you gotta do one thing and one thing only. Wish and communicate to self what you want. And source will deliver. Only in steps which are in relation to where you are. Or else you will confuse yourself ever further away from what you perceive as success. So what is success? Well.. It's feeling good about yourself which is to truly feel that all good things are a given for you. No questions asked in relation to yourself. Trusting self. Believing self. No wavering and no second guessing it. Faith.

And all gives.

Begin to question or even worse complain and you ask for explanations as to why.

Simple as that. And the experience comes guiding you back to love. Always. Just as water finds its way back to the ocean. The same thing. Manifestation. Love returns to love. Source returns to source. Give is give. Attraction. Universe.

It's not hard to understand that. But it's very simple and the rational mind which has been given so much mandate in technological explanations has a hard time believing that it is. So this becomes the challenge. Not to force but to lead. And that is a major or minor adjustment which you have to learn when deepening your relationship to self. To your higher self. To love. You will get the hang of it.

As you don't give up and do what is necessary as to reach a greater understanding. Which is all freeing in itself. So you free yourself by increments. Do that with dedication and focus and you'll release the demon eventually. The darkness which is shadowing the light in misconception. Not knowing any better. Just wanting to save what we hold most precious. So much it kills it. And resets. To do it all over again as to learn more which is done by understanding in relation to what we value the highest and that is love. No way around that. No true desire to either. Love is sacred.

Love is all.

Love is.

Existence.

Possibility at all.

For anything.

Without? Nothing.

So give the princess a new name. Affirm her.

And fantasia is back together again. The brain and heart making it all happen. When congruent partners in law abiding soul being. Acting as one. No internal conflict blamed on outside circumstances. But taken responsibility for as to correct itself. All is given. All the time.

Are you listening. Are you tampered with? By yourself?

You want to leave. You want to restart.

What exactly?

Leave your mess under the rug to have success in another country? You will unmistakably pack the darkness to go along. So deal with it. And experience the world without it from the inside out. The grass is not greener. That's just a momentarily satisfaction taking focus from the darkness but it will come back despite the wonderful landscape. The environment in need of care is the internal. And when that is no longer polluted you live in fresh air! Clear wind. Clear sales. A true bang for the buck. A healthy relationship in peace.

It does not take a degree in rocket science to understand the world of love coming from the inside out. It's easy to see, it's easy to understand. And doing it is something that will be a breeze when we support each other in doing it. Pain has to be experienced. We have to own what we need to get rid of. And that's humble responsibility. Clearing the karma real good once and for all. Negative karma is the cancer of humanity making us parasites in our own paradise. Who stupid is that???

So my wish is to be of aid in this. To offer my deep dives and experience. Giving the world a pair of perceptual glasses of correct vision without believing I am greater than anyone else. I just want to have fun, experience love and be a part of as much as possible before I leave this place and move on to what's next.

I want it all.

I do. No shame in that.

But I want it from the right conditions. And I wanna do it the right way.

I am truth. I am love. I am sensitive.

So I cannot go against love. It hurts me like hell.

I just wanna lift and raise. I wanna support and appreciate. I wanna love and give!

And I am ready for it.

Because I've done so much for it and you get what you give. Give God your all and God gives you everything. What is there to give? Give it up, the resistance. And then you give credit and praise. Those two gives all. And stay true to your soul intention all the way. Which means you are advised to come from that initially.

And that demands a choice in connection.

Staying heartfelt. Staying in/on love.

And in time. The time is now.

You are welcome. We thank you. Is what I receive.

From the other side.

The side of interstellar power not able to comprehend at all within this dimension.

You have the power, I have the power. All is given! But in care. As to not be hazardous to an entire race of species. Dream beings. Dreamers. Dream weavers.

That's who we are.

We dream everything into existence. So dream! Dream your dreams of love. And love life and this adventure in-between. And you are positively conductive as to be given influence and resources making a world of love. True. Humble. Grateful.

Act as if you are God. Because you are!

If things aren't here yet know that they are. You are living and receiving just what you need right now. And more is always given. Like these 5 pages first thing in the morning. For me, for you and the entire human race. Thank you God! 💕💕

A pure heart is a true heart. Not holding on to any contradictions to what is love. Love is free. Faith becomes a given then.

As you are clear in your chest you can rest there effortlessly.
In peace and now. It's all well and good.

Which makes for an opportunity for your brain (given it experiencing a peaceful environment) to do the necessary connections as to make things happen. You allow. More life!

It's the same thing when the heart carries a lot of hurt. That also works the mind. But like crazy trying to make sense of a self destructive environment eventually manifesting that in a strong conviction. Creating darkness to be real. Dead choice.
