ALL FROZEN IN A TIMELESS EVER CHANGING MOVEMENT

OF EXISTANCE : LIFE IS HERE AND NOW

YOU CAN'T GO ELSA WHERE?

ANNA(THE)ONE WANNA LIVE FREE!?

NO. YES! WE CAN GET INTO.

THE ROXBURY!

Don't fear getting eaten. In a sea of love.

I cannot be in need to love myself as all I need is love but is love at the same time, without being in fear of love at the same time as well. That makes me question my existence. And in that I will challenge myself to survive going against the only need I truly have which isn't anything to be afraid of, as all I need and is pure Love which has no fear.

That becomes hard to let go of in a misconception as it becomes letting go of yourself in fear of love. But you need to know love is life. Which for a human being begins without any knowledge of a self at all? But makes for questioning existence based upon the wrong idea of self when attacked in completely blind nonjudgmental love.

Robbery of freedom to love just as is.
All in relation to self which is love herself..

Self love 🌸 The feminine false self-oppressed by the masculine in misconception of true self.

What we value the most is life, and life happens by the power of love. There is no higher value. Nothing more worthy of as is..
Love is the highest and invaluable at the same time which makes it the lowest in humility. Making everything love yet experienced differently in relation to perceived self worth all in relation to love being free in peace or feared in misconception.

..Better. Best let that go. For a greater good.. Yet not materially as in letting go of existence. But let go in relaxing so the heart can live without struggle to survive in that opposition of self..

Nobody likes to be forced against their free will. Especially in relation to not knowing what that is: making it become a perception of going against themselves..

Struggling to survive, inside out.
That's feeling poor. In judgement.

When love is the richest, as it gives us all.

All Good God 💕 Free Love 4 Errbody

4EVER 🤔🌌🤔

Don't lie to survive in true love. It won't work in out. As in love you always is..being it and all..

The solution is to forgive and move on, and don't repeat the lie. Never affirm what is against you. That's self destructive.

Dark shit.

To comprehend what I have written here cannot be done in the logical reading of word after word alone. You would have to read it with your heart. Do you know how to do that?

(I don't know?)..
You can tell yourself.

But, If you ask how?..

Then may God have mercy on your robot existence..

★ - Joyiz Goody, The One.

You should not be ashamed and feel guilty as to love yourself. But to actually create humility you need to know what betrayal is somehow in relation to pain and pleasure, tension and relaxation, fear and love..

Let go of what has been in order to receive the new.. Easier said than done.

We go thru the motions of the illusion of time.. Emotionally in perfect timing in the now..

Everything comes to an end.. and makes a new beginning come to life..

Born again.. 🌸

See the youth in the old..

.. and realize we are young forever.. 🕊️

What makes you tired is not of life. It's the God damn resistance to it which makes for a struggle all you idiots fuckin' with love..

Love is free for fuck sake.

And sex is not love.
Sex is fuckin' sex.

If you for instance think a lot about your daughter as a father in protection of her own sexuality? Then you are having sexual thoughts about your daughter constantly.

WHAT IN THE FUCK IS WRONG WITH YOU?
ASK YOUR FUCKING SELF THAT QUESTION.

YOU COMPLETE IDIOT.

Let everyone be free and lead with love.
By knowing love to begin with.
In relation to yourself.

And we won't live all needy. Especially in relation to sex as we wish to receive love.

And then we have a lovely time.. doing whatever. Depending on the context.

Which is in moral comprehension, of what is what.. Don't judge.

Exercise free will. As you are free..

To enjoy life 🕊️🐟🙌🌸💖🕊️

It's perfectly alright to just have some sex with someone but not in any need as all we need is love.. Have fun!

In the streets? However? With whomever?

No!

Be nuanced. Nothing is black and white. That's rational nonsense. Be fluid. Be humane. Be emotional. Be real.

Somebody not sexually mature is not supposed to have sex. That's a given. Then we introduce ourselves into maturing sexually and should explore this with ourselves without judgement. Like guilt and shame is, coming from fear of doing wrong as in being wrong which a sexual identification becomes as an identification is a rigid framework and not free.

There is no such thing as a sexual identity.
You are free to enjoy yourself however you prefer.

There is only one identity which is soul, the non-conceptual identity in nature being free which makes it perfectly alright in relation to live in freedom. Being a being of love.

Having a human experience which includes a mind and a body and genitals etc.

Truly madly deeply just let love be free.
And let sex be that as well.

Separated from each other.

But can come together in fun and joy.
In a healthy loving relationship of pleasure not in need as to satisfy a neglected heart.

How can you tell? Relate.

What kind of sex do you prefer? Try!
Don't judge. Don't do anything you don't want to. How do I know that? What gets you interested? Follow that. Without stress.

If it wasn't for you then you had the experience. No judgement.

Explore some more. Live a fucking life..

Maybe you are hungry? Maybe you are in need of protein? Or vitamins? Or water?
Or a hug? Or a love song?

Perhaps life isn't all about having sex and thinking about sex all the time?

Ever not thought about that and just felt love inside your chest in complete freedom?

I believe few people have..

As love has been mistreated for so long now held hostage waiting for me. For real!
The brave soul going into complete darkness to find the core issue delivering it for free just like love is. You're welcome.

I never stole nothing from Tifiti..
But I got us off the hook anyway.

You're welcome 🌸

It's a beautiful world when we allow for it..

Inside out.

I could really use an Apple now.

A big one. A new one.

Miao we. Dawg.

I did not watch 'The Visit' or 'The Conjuring' to feel for that in order to feel for what is right.

Make it happen Octo

The more intuitive the more dreamy. The younger you'll feel. The more rational the less dreamy. And you'll feel dead inside from depriving yourself of life actually.

It's all imagination anyway.. so dream.

Dream big. About Apples.

I only had 1 misspelling in this piece.

It was the word: Existence.

I tend to spell that: Existance.

But I feel it works better!

Stance. Standing in the now. Standing in love. Being present.

Just an idea.

/ Granny was no Smith

As I woke up this morning, December 10th. I was pretty tensed and got in the shower. As I found relaxation this came to me:

Home is where the heart is. To make a home run you gotta become the pitcher, catcher and the audience.

..And I said inside myself: Who said that?

The answer was: I am

And I felt like: Everything
