KEEP PRAYING IT CAN'T GO WRONG

PRAYOGRAMMING

When you pray to God for guidance and help you are asking for inspiration and insight into what is holding you back from letting go of the past.

That is basically what is happening.

And then you receive inspiration that makes you create thus giving you a greater understanding about yourself.

God and you subconscious is connected. And also connected to everything else because God is in everything and everyone.

So when you meet the right people at the right time or come across that book or whatever at the right time is all divine spiritual connection.

When you thank God for everything you are impressing your subconscious with gratitude in relation to the source of love that gives all and that becomes reflected back and rewarded as this is true.

But as you learn to understand, forgive and let of of the past you can pray differently. Because there is no longer a bunch of justifications within you that robs you of feeling good about yourself in terms of value.

You feel more free from judgement.

And thus you've gained a bunch of experience and feel worthy of something new.

So you can pray and ask for guidance in what your next step is in realizing your dream. And receive inspiration that you act upon and create.

But you can also state success and impress your subconscious thanking the source of all creation for making your dreams come true.

Everything you have, every had and ever will have is from God.
God is Love. And love needs to be acknowledged to exist. Just like you!

To affirm while focused on your heart in a loving emotional state:

I am Fantastic! I am Amazing!
All I do is Fantastic! All I do is Amazing!
Thank you God for making my dreams come true!
Thank you for making everything happen!

Thank you God now that everything is working out for me!
Thank you God now that everything is getting better and better!
Everything I ask for comes to me!
Thank you God!

Is a prayer and impression on your subconscious.
Just not in any doubt and questioning, but all in faith.

And that will become reflected upon continuous impression.

A prayer of sorrow and anguish will only become a general state of ungratefulness and lack. Because you are stating that things are not good at all.

This means you have to find gratitude and appreciation where you are.

And some of us carry a lot so praying and asking for guidance on how to lose all of that is necessary to come to a place where there is less resistance. What happens after resistance has been dropped is that you've come to the surface of feeling good enough to maintaining gratitude and appreciation which enables stating positivity and success more effortlessly.

Time and space does not exist.

And the subconscious impression will over time become manifested.

Somebody taking their own life and somebody experiencing great success has done the same thing only in a negative vs positive emotional & general state.

The one answering your prayers is ineffectively you.
Because you are responsible for what general emotional state you decide to be in.

So make yourself happy! By losing resistance and stating your success in gratitude despite any outcome or knowledge of when, where and how.

You can pray quietly inside your mind.

Most negative if not all negative prayers are made this way.

But to state gratitude and to speak out loud makes it official and thus making God & Love Official. And it also generates more emotion and a stronger impression on the subconscious.

So speaking well with confidence and clarity is more effective.

And singing is even more effective as it generates more emotions!

And that's what makes the impression!

I am Fantastic! I am Amazing!
Thank you God now that all of my dreams come true!

Clap on Am, Stic, Am, Zing, Thank, Now, My & Come

Joyful melody of choice!

Get it?

The Only
"Judge" is you in relation to yourself.

The prayer is not designed to primarily give you things. That is secondary to the love you give yourself.

Influence & Connection of Whatever for a greater experience

We have forgotten what is Sacred. What is Holy.

There is nothing more Sacred and there is nothing more Holy than Love.

Love is God.
God is Love.

So cherish God and cherish
Love. Hold love inside you with a soft loving care.

Find the love. Teach the love.
Preach the love. So we can keep the love.

Treat love as the most Sacred.

The more love you feel and cherish inside you. The more value is inside you.

The more value is inside you the better reflection and experience you have.

All from and back 2 Luv.

All Love.

All God.

Love.

Love.

Love.

Love.

Sometimes when I want to feel more love inside me I think about helping entire families. I dream of assisting them in learning where they come from, what happened in terms of destruction and aid them into becoming communicative human beings with a greater understanding. With a deeper emotional responsibility in relation to themselves and each other.

And I dream of letting them off the hook completely after they've finished the class. And just paying all of their loans and debts and giving them a new beginning.

With a contract they've signed all in relation to themselves about making the promise to always do their best in staying inside their hearts and living with presence and compassion.

And also to deepen their relationship with God as the source of all love and creation. Wouldn't that be beautiful!

I feel that anyone who makes right for themselves deserves that.

The one who takes responsibility and wish to contribute to a world of love. For themselves, for others and the entire human race.

It's never about the things you own.
Everything is rental.

All is a reflection of you.

What you seek in this life that fulfills you and satisfies you is what you contribute with. And that's something ongoing. So it works out as life continues and moves along. You make people grow as you make yourself grow. And we expand as a race.
