

All is relaxation of the heart. Which happens all in perfect timing. Which is allowed for being congruent with completion of task. So the tension will be there until the task is done. It serves a purpose. But it can also kill you if you're not doing what you're supposed to. Which is to make coal into diamond. In actuality that is to make for a greater understanding. And that understanding is to be shared without judgement and in sacrifice as to make a change being as true as possible.

It's all about guilt. That is what creates the tension. But is really about fear in coming clean. Which is all about getting judged as wrong all together. Completely identified with behavior instead of separation between being and doing. So the one that has done wrong holds on which hurts the one doing right in relation to energy connection which is all about family. That includes us all. Because we are one big family of human beings. The one with the mission to make it all clear and to be as true as possible will feel the guilt of everyone in order to be fueled in their specific mission taking care of love herself in neglect from others immaturity.

The fear, the demon will become greater as its being allowed to.
Lack of humility. Based in fear. Fear of self. Fear of love. Fear of truth.
But understandable in a highly judgemental and not at all understanding society.

Yet still possible to sort out and correct when living life and having a deep relationship with self. Not afraid of judgement from some God outside. When in realization of oneself being God together with everyone else. You can come clean and correct this guilt in all honesty without fear as you are doing it 100% together with yourself.

So there you go as to understand why society is so judgemental.
And also becomes obvious as to why the ego has such a strong hold. And also why that is getting worse as we do not want more of that which is our current focus. What we focus our energy and attention on we experience.

So we TRULY NEED to shift that and acknowledge Soul living with the heart affirmed as the most important and highest in our physicality calling it God making it a true spiritual connection.

NOT just thinking about it. And certainly NOT making the mind GOD.
The mind can act God in the background making things connected. But needs not and desires not tremendous amounts of pressure in being wrongfully accused. Which is what happens when you make IT WRONG. 'Space Tribe' take that track down. Yes everything is energy but life is love. Love is unconditional and free inside the heart. Affirm LOVE to be real! And acknowledge and thank LOVE for everything! Call Love God as in Supreme and thus the highest! = No Problem!

Feel good about yourself. Not achieve and perform good. Don't invest in the Ego. Be true to yourself and you will be true to others. What you have done up until today is what you can get away with 100% without judgement if you come clean all the way in relation to yourself. Being completely honest. That's the gift of freedom. You just have to allow for it. In all humility and all praising of love.

The heart knows.

Always.

You cannot lie at all to the heart.

And you all have a core desire to be as much as you can of what you is.

And what you is is truth.

Because you are unconditional love.

What is not taken care of in responsibility is found when fasting. When one individual has to stay positive and compassionate without food, only water.

To consume something to eat is to receive love. Food is love. So one has to be completely "in the desert" with only water as to find spring within. The one mature enough to take on the task that is. And the one most mature is the one most capable. The one most capable is the one most developed. In spirit.

The highest ranking officer of love. The one most humble.

As humility makes for all.

No bombs. No grenades. But taking all the wars of the world in heart.

For a greater good. If you are very material and by that Ego you won't understand that connection. As you don't believe in spirit. So I ask you then to ask yourself:

How come is it, that I can dream?

Ask that question to yourself. With focused energy and attention in your chest.

Ask your heart.

And the answer you will receive is unconditional love. No words at all. Just a feeling. No attachment. No hold. Just a feeling letting you know the answer.

Did ya blipblop feel that?

Smile back to the heart. And say thank you. Thank you so much! I love you!

..if you did not feel a thing = You are completely controlled by your own mind. Which I have a hard time believing that anyone is. Except people on drugs. Given to them by Doctors. Destroying angels in darkness. In lack of humility.

You cannot give what you do not have.

And thus you give shit.

Acting like a savior.

A saint.

In butchers clothing.

And all ya'll investing in that.

Shame on you.

Take responsibility.

And do what's right.

For you and for me and the entire human race.

Stop watching life in a digital frame and experience biology.

I mean you are here for a limited amount of time.

Make the most out of it!

Don't stress. Don't add pressure. Don't judge. Make for freedom as you come correct in being true and affirming yourself correctly.

Good job!

A World of love.

Especially you Doc.

No kid is broken. They are sensitive and try to correct themselves in relation to a highly dysfunctional society. Curse you not taking care of yourself and projecting that onto the kids.

What makes it all great again is me not walking around in the streets with robe on all holy.

That's EGO.

That was his fall.

The Jesus dude.

Not being able to complete his task.

But understandable as he wanted it so much because he felt it.

But not being loyal all the way.

Do we judge him for that? Nah..

We understand.

So can you understand me now?

I did it.

All for us.

Divine being acting human for a bit.

With emphasis on humane.

For the greater good.

Peace In.

I slept without food and only water in this position for about 12 hours to gain the energy necessary to write this.

Now I am sitting in my couch trying to find the energy to walk 500 meters to get outside the library and upload this.

I am strong. The strongest.

But I to need love.

I have given my all God.

I have given it my all.
