Jesus Christ

What was "his" line of business?

Jesus is a concept that describes the masculine becoming humble in relation to the feminine. Not submissive. To come to God you must go thru Jesus. So what does that mean? Truly.

If God is the main source of energy you hold energy within you. Energy is non-conceptual which means that it is free and not identified with anything. In our human experience we call that Soul.

Soul is the aspect of you that is still remaining after you unidentifed yourself with everything that is material and untrue.

Something untrue is something that is temporary and in transformation. Like a thought or an emotion. What is left is just being. Existing. 4 real. Really.

Because energy is never born and cannot die.

Jesus line of business was personal development.
NOT religion.

And this he showed and instructed others about as he had gained a great deal of experience in what it's like to have a human experience. That was written down and interpreted by people that wanted to share this with future generations but had to do so in metaphors to stand the test of time.

The test of time is in relation to others and the given circumstances so the metaphors would have to be simple and clear to be understood for a long time.

This was understood by some that used this information as control to become superior and keep the people at a certain level of understanding in order to live a wealthy life under the influence that they supported them which was all a lie.

Jesus being male is just a representation of the logical structure within one human being that has to have faith in the source of all creation. To become receptive to love. To do that you must know what love is and not confuse that with sex.

When you realize this and understand that there is no separation between any energy in the universe you also understand that you as a soul is a part of God. But not separated. Not even tied too. Not even connected but God self.

Never God Itself. Never God Himself. Never God Herself.

But God as pure energy and love.

You are God.

In your spirit and in your soul.

So why is there a separation between you and you Soul?

To be able to experience anything at all you have to have a cognition, something that registers events in terms of what you make of them and how you perceive them. A mind combined with emotions that together make up for all the experiencing.

Or else you would simply just be awareness.

Like God is. Just is. Isness..

So to communicate and ask for guidance as to understand yourself better is to ask yourself. But God and the power of all creation is a database that collects experience from all beings which includes us.

And that database becomes larger all the time with more and more perspectives and nuancing as no experience can ever be recreated. Close but not a copy.

And this is where all the inspiration is constantly available for us if we allow it.

Which is to be open and loving in relation to our true authentic selves which is Soul & God.

As God in Christianity for instance has been defined as male and flesh we have struggled for many thousands of years as to be humble before somebody else.

No-one feels that this is alright. So it becomes demanding for the mind.

The mind is based in survival and cannot understand this so it has to be convinced over time. Or just become humble and trusting in what is understood to be all loving. The mind has no problem with that.

But if we suspect this to be a force that will possess us and control us we will not give it all up to God.

And that is understandable.

But as you see God is pure loving energy.
And God is you.

So what you need to do is to give IT (The mind) all up to yourself.

And all will be given.

What will be given is in relation to what you are worth.

And that is a perception of your own creation.

If you've lived a life of disloyalty in relation to yourself you are on trial.
Within yourself.

And thus just must become free of any judgement and condemnation within you in relation to what you done that was wrong.

So what is wrong?

Hurtful.

Destructive in nature to what is loving.

And that is all about context and in relation to what is mature and responsible given what creating life and love and the opposite.

What you do in relation to somebody else that you primarily wish to learn from yourself. As this becomes a pressure inside you it will generate pain. And this pain can disappear as you understand what it's telling you.

It can also go away from you projection that frustration onto somebody else. But only momentary and will leave you with even a greater teaching to be taught as you failed the assignment in the school of life.

The assignment is to become more understanding and compassionate with humility and gratitude as this will prevent you from becoming a danger to society which is primarily a danger to yourself.

And God is all Love. God is Love.

So when you go against that you go against nature and the expansion of the universe which is the grand plan. To become more.

Just like you.

This is your assignment as a whole in life as you are having a human experience.

That's life.

Jesus had 12 disciples.

Those represent 12 gross personality traits that each and every human being have.

Some of those might be loving and positive.

Some of those might be fearful and negative.

This become either constructive or destructive in relation to nature.

Nature is all Love. Love is all God.

God is Love.

And nature grows and develops in perfect timing. Never forcing anything.

But nature is strong and can grow thru concrete.

Just like you can in relation to the obstacles you face in your daily challenges.

And what you dream of is already yours as you dare to go for your dream.

To go for your greatest dream is about becoming authentic and relaxed within yourself as in not any skeletons in the closet.

You must become true.

You cannot lie to yourself.

Don't worry about lying to others.

You can only lie to yourself.

And you cannot bullshit and hide from yourself.

So everything works out.

This is what some would call science.

Some would it science fiction?

As they have a hard time believing in simplicity.

That is a product of society reinforcing the belief in technology.

Technology must develop and expand.

Because that is kool and makes life interesting.

But not as an aid to feed you as you refuse to lift your arm in all doubt.

But to make the world a better place and help nature thrive in conjunction with a technological society.

The human is 5% rational & logical structure with 95% emotions.

That would therefor be a correct ratio of each individuals life. And will become a healthy society as we create like we are.

We don't go against ourselves in truth.

That would not even function and equate as truth.

For those that have more will be given.

For those who don't have all will be taken away.

That is all about your own projection coming from your own perception of yourself.

Which gets reflected back to you in whatever manifestation.

That is what Jesus primarily wanted to tell us.

To call upon him like a superpower coming to the rescue and remaining passive is just a misconception of the personal responsibility necessary to make a change.

But if you believe in Jesus with strong conviction you actually believe in yourself.

As Jesus was all Love.

Which you are as you are a Soul.

As you are God.

Pure energy of Love.

The creative part is you.

Nothing happens without your participation in your own life.

That should be obvious.

And what will happen is all your own choice.

What you affirm in relation to an emotion that is congruent with what you affirm in your thoughts and actions.

This is called creation. Being creative.

That is hard when you give away all your creativity and never practice being creative.

It's just like anything else.

Everything works in the same way.

If you want to get better at playing the piano you practice and trust yourself and your own expression. And after some time you've developed your own style if you aren't trying to become something that already exist. That is actually not authentic and is going against yourself as in your true nature.

So where to start being creative then?

Do you like stuff?

Do that.

Do you like to have conversation? Do you like to write? Do you like to paint? Do you like to construct? Do you even like to demolish?

Do that.

Do you like to be a demon?

Don't do that.

Please.

If you like that and it gets you exited?

You are not connected to your emotions which is your femininity and thus you are not connected to Love and God.

You shall not receive.

Or you do?

That's the thing!

If you beleive what you're doing is right!

Because there is no right or wrong given your personal experience.

But what you feel is right may be what feels wrong to someone else.

And that will be hard to understand if you are disconnected from emotions.

That makes you a psychopath as you are logical and rational like a robot.

You need to get in touch with your emotions.

That is supplied by God all over the world.

And created in such a beautiful way that the cognition remains intact giving you an experience that makes you be present, focused and clear so that you create a greater understanding within you.

To have complete faith is to trust God.

To trust the power of Love without any doubt whatsoever.

God, Love, Nature is one and the same.

All of life's experiences are chemical.

That's how you feel.

That's what makes something experienced as this or that whatever that is in the given context of the current events.

We have tried to create this in complete disbelief of Nature, God, Love for a long time now and all it creates is destruction in a large scale.

Not only in biological destruction outside of us but in destroying free will, personal responsibility, creative power, humility, gratitude & truth.

All of what makes for a world of love.

When all the while it's been available without any damage to anything except all the lies and doubt killing ourselves.

We call these magic mushrooms.

But the magic is really this:

All of your perception. Which is in your subconscious is constantly available for you to transform from negative to positive.

It's all available when the guard is down.

The guard is the rational mind that wants to sustain the current identity for safety as it cannot understand that you have to die to the old conception of yourself and be who you are + add to what you want to become.

This creates tension in the mind.

And that spreads across the body creating disease, naturally.

Going hard on yourself.

So what you are looking for is relaxation of the mind to be able to experience what is actually inside your subconscious.

But you need to do that with your cognition intact.

Not numbed or altered by intoxication which alcohol and drugs create.

If you imagine yourself driving in a car.

That car as a whole is you and your life.

You sit at the driver seat as you are in control (cognition, mind)

Between you and the backseat which is a wall and the backseat is a cab connected to everything. As you consume mushrooms you lower that wall and become aware of truth. If you consume a lot you become aware of nothing but truth. As you consume smaller amounts you lower that wall a little bit.

So consuming a lot will become the equivalent of removing the wall as well as the seats giving you so much truth which is non-conceptual and not identified or material but pure love and spirit. All white. So you can't see anything else but this.

You experience this as being in the light.

Because you are in complete freedom of any thought or idea of anything at all.

I don't recommend doing that because this will be forced in relation to your current development and actually puts you way ahead so when this is over you will make that into something unexplainable and delirious because it became too much for your cognitive ability to handle all at once.

It can actually be extremely destructive and leave you in a state of, well..

Might not recover.

Honestly.

So the amount is something that is not equivalent to success in understanding.

Quite the opposite.

What you want is to learn more about yourself and the misconceptions you have about yourself in order to rid yourself from negative convictions.

That's what you're looking for.

Not to understand how the galaxy's function in waves and particles.

That's something you can learn in studying them in a clear unaffected state.

All you ever dream of is a successful life which is all about you becoming successful within yourself in relation to your perception.

To be happy.

To feel good about yourself.

To understand everything in relation to what it's like having a human experience that is loving and compassionate where we create beautiful things and live in peace as we are peaceful in relation to ourselves.

That's what you're looking for.

And to be kool.

Because we love kool thangs.

Like Kool & The Gang.

Something that Jesus would have been on his knees asking to be a part of.

He would have done anything!

Well.. Almost.

He or She has dignity.

And takes care of themselves.

Because they love themselves.

SO! They become a member!

Just 4 being so kool!

They can play the cymbal! It don't matter.

There be one cymbal hit every third song!

But they just love to have this wonderful human being on stage with them..

Because they so kool.

And loving.

And supporting.

In creating a peaceful world of love all in funk.

A, I in a state that is influenced by mushrooms now?

Nah.

When I do mushrooms nothing happens.

Is that because I'm done?

Hell nah..

But I am done as in relation to understanding what went wrong so I did it right.

I corrected myself from the inside out.

That was a lot of pressure.

Because I also shared it along the way without any particular support.

Which I hope I will get now?

Getting paid after I've done the work ya know..

That's how it should be.

So I did it.

For you.

For me.

And the entire human race.

I used to sing Michael Jackson's 'You are not Alone' and cry for myself.

But I don't do that anymore.

Today I cried in a BMW X3 that I test drove for a future purchase to the song of 'Snatam Kaur - Akaal'. But those were tears of joy as I have reached success now.

I am happy and I feel great about myself.

The only thing now is to receive all that love back so my heart can stop hurting.

It burns like fire to be honest.

But that's what happens when you give and at the same time all is taken away.

That was necessary for me as to continue my work.

I can see that now.

It would not have been possible otherwise.

I had to be nailed to a cross with a spear thru my heart for years.

To finally get it.

That I am the one.

The savior of the human race.

This time around.

Tomorrow it might be you?

As we need to find the love, teach the love, preach the love.
So we can keep the love. For our children..

I love you Patti.
Wanna play cymbal with me?

I'm scarred of hearing you sing actually.

I might die on the spot.
Take it easy.

My heart has just come out.

From intensive care.

/ Leo LaBelle

PS. I know people that have consumed a relatively large amount of great mushrooms and nothing happened. They were on medication. Already controlled within. That's become dysfunctional and should be an indicator of how destructive these medications are. To even call them medication is an abomination. To take all this and control it while not present a good result. Who you wish to understand is yourself. So you do it by yourself in peace with a pen and paper. And you express yourself and continue with that just as you are. To "Be on mushrooms" is not gonna happen. And you will in your own experience understand why.

Which is the foundation of self-development all together.

To have someone with you to talk to is very helpful. A friend that you have a deep trust for. That's not your Doctor? Naturally.

All of this can be done without mushrooms as well. If you are brave enough to speak the truth. Like I am as I do what I do. But some of us have been heavily mistreated and this becomes help in doing so. You gotta go thru it. There is no way around it. Trust God. Trust in Love. I love you and I believe in you. Go for what you feel is right in relation to a calm & deep breath.

Don't fight. You'll close. You want to be open. Don't be afraid.

A woman that feel great success in these explanations in regards to femininity like:

YES I KNEW IT!

In a state of opposition?

Is actually very masculine.

Only the rational mind divides.

Be a girl sweetie.

And celebrate like:

YES! FINALLY LOVE GET RECOGNITION FOR BEING WHAT LIFE IS ALL ABOUT!

That's more like it.

I am all about the latter one.

And I'm a dude with a ding dong.

And I also love women.

Ain't that some shit?

You DON'T legislate on freedom.

That is a suicide.

Literally, Figuratively, Religiously, Technically & Inhumanely.

As an individual and as a collective.

100% Stupidity.

Wanna cast a vote on that one?

What's the weather forecast?

Cloudy with a chance of hellfire?

Or blue sky with a chance to make it right this time?

The next time will be 2024 years from now.

That will demand this happening again.

Only harder. But we will also have become more advanced by then.

If we are still here that is?

Drug?

Use a hammer and smash those pills..

What do they look like now you idiot?

You who have not even tried them yourself but state that you know?

From what experience?

You read about the holocaust so you know what that was like?

Is that what you're sayin'?

I'm not a horse fan. I have nothing against them but it's time you get off yours.

People in politics are just like realtors here in Sweden:

The information is about the property is 5% in relation to their picture.

Saving the environment & shiit...

Look at that receipt.

The receipt never lie.

It's also called the mirror of love.

Not available @ IKEA.

Truth be told.

Make those letters bold.

And your EGO face is sold.

As you are a sellout.

What is invaluable?

Soul Supremacy Time.

First time:

3 grams of dried Psilocybin B+ in the morning on an empty stomach.

Preferably alone in peace and undisturbed.

Have some sweets and water with you.

There will be pressure building up as relaxation comes and that will be uncomfortable. But it will pass within 5-10 minutes.

The next and future explorations:

1 gram of dried Psilocybin B+ mushrooms.

More is just unnecessary.

And note that you have to be free of any medication that is designed to alter the chemicals that manage all emotions. Free as in a natural state without their effect. So quitting on Monday and beginning with this on Wednesday is not gonna work if you get what I'm sayin?

The ones that need this the most and should be the ones to do it first are the ones that call themselves Helpers. So they actually understand and can share what da fuck they talk about.

In all humility.

To receive a great consolation is useless if you don't use it.

So act on the guidance of clarity as you receive it.

Or else you are just a party popper looking for a fix to sooth your pain.

This is not something to be used at any party.

That's the gravest misunderstand ever.

THIS IS MEDICINE.

Remember that you are looking for what is maintained inside you. That speaks against you. In this state you are more accepting to positive affirmations. Rid yourself of resistance and add to your well-being. Lighten up and shine in a world of love. Natural timing = Godspeed.

Who's the savior really?

The one who trusts Nature, Love, God =
The one who saves themselves.

When I do something good I hit CMD+S.
When I'm not liking something I hit CMD+Z.

I save what is good.
And I repent what was not in my flava.

The End of Dark History.
And the beginning..

Of a World in MultiColorVision.

If you've got a collection of Nazi items at home as a Holocaust survivor or as an actual Nazi. It's the same. The system works best when we clear the cache and we clear all history. We all know what destruction is. But holding on is all energy associated with guilt, blame, victim, perpetrator and condemnation.

We wanna be able to breathe. And we should protect ourselves. But to live inside the condom prevents both. That's a condemnation. For safe keeping? Or for holding on to justify what we refuse to let go in fear that it will happen again. Honestly? Or just holding on to pain to prove how wrong it was?

Love will not remain as long as you complain. You will then create what you say you don't want. Law of attraction. You get what you give.

The fear of them becoming leaders has always been a misconception of oneself in complete superficial misunderstanding.

Who's them?
We are all human.
We are all soul.

Only some have a hard time speaking their mind. In lack of understating but stating they are = Lack of humility. Because that is shameful? Maybe it's just as simple as blushing?

I think it is..
Stupid Mind.

What you cannot communicate clearly to someone else you cannot communicate clearly within yourself either. That's just the way it is.

The more of a psychedelic experience you have the less you comprehend of your own life experience and understanding of all that is to understand in relation to yourself.

When you come to a clear understanding about yourself.

It will become clear just as normal.

Normal =

You being true in relation to yourself

Authentic in your expression as you're not holding yourself back in fear.

Fear =

Resistance.

Resistance =

Negative subconscious convictions.

Free =

No negative judgements in relation to who you are

Love =

All giving & all receiving of positive experiences

Which sometimes is judged as negative when communicated in truth as to make things right.

Love does not hurt.

Lies does.

When you experience love and truth and it hurts?

You feel sorry. Sadness.

Because of the pain that stems from being disloyal to who you are =

The highly active mind is a mind that works overtime as it stems from feeling that things are not alright. So find out what's wrong in all honesty. And do something about it. Now you can rest in peace before you physically die.

Fail to understand this and you wish to silence all creativity and kill yourself all in pain. To become free is all about the inside out. Nobody will come and save you. You have to do the work yourself. As you won't understand otherwise and that is your & our freedom ticket.

PEOPLE OFTEN FIND IT EASY TO BE BRUTALLY HONEST
AS THEY TELL YOU HOW THEY FEEL ABOUT YOU.

BUT FIND IT HARD TO BE LOVINGLY HONEST AND TELL
THEMSELVES HOW THEY FEEL ABOUT THEMSELVES.

WHAT THEY ARE TRUTHFULLY LOOKING TO DO

NO-ONE HAS TROUBLE BEING HONEST IN RELATION TO THEMSELVES. THEY ARE HAVING SUCH A HARD TIME
BECAUSE THEY HAVE TO MAINTAIN WHAT IS A LIE.

THAT'S THE TRUTH. THAT HURTS.

TO FEAR SOMEONE HONEST IN THE PERCEPTION THAT THEY ARE CRAZY IS TRUTHFULLY THE FEAR OF LOVE =
TRUTH WITHIN THEMSELVES.

IT'S THAT SIMPLE.

TO LACK INTEGRITY BUT STRONG AS HELL?

NAH.. QUIT PLAYIN'..

SHOW YOUR TRUE COLORS.

IT'S ALRIGHT.

AIN'T IT?

MOST SAY, THINK & FEEL THAT IT IS!

SO LEAD WITH EXAMPLE THEN.

YOU DON'T HAVE TO LOOK LIKE A BOX OF CRAYONS EVERYDAY? BUT FEEL NO FEAR IN DOING THAT SOMETIMES. YOU DON'T HAVE TO MAKE FUN OF EVERYTHING YOU ARE? BUT FEEL NO FEAR IN DOING THAT SOMETIMES.

IN RELATION TO YOURSELF. IN RELATION TO OTHERS AND IN

When I feel that I can leave the reader feeling good and in understanding of how to make things better.

Without judgement, anger & frustration.

Coming to peace within.

This is something that I can give away as I have developed this within myself.

I'm real. I'm true.

In relation to myself.

And none of that could have happened without me asking for it. None of that could have happened if I haven't got humble and prayed to what I cannot see.

But what exists more than anything in the world.

Which is God.

Believe in God.

Believe in Love.

Believe in Nature.

Thank God! Thank Love! Giving thanks is Natural!

Keep that relationship.

And you shall be free, receive more and live a good life.
