

ALL GOOD LOVE

Dear Princess 🌸

I am honored as we communicate and I shall be right on point as to reveal my most humble intentions. Everything in live is about connections. Young men and women they speak of knowing the right people and so on and so forth.. They are correct in their understanding yet inverted and vexed as I managed to make myself prince of the universe exclusively by one single connection alone. And the inverted all contrasting realization was that I needed absolutely no connection to any people at all. I mean I need a social life. We all do. But I did this by myself connection completely which is without separation.. With my true love. Yet for a human being this is not enough! No. I am not sad to say. I feel spring in my heart. I feel like the birds are singing, the soil is fragrant and the flowers are about to bloom. And this is February 11th.. Isn't that amazing.. But spring is not enough either.. I need the sun as to feel warmth on my skin. I was sitting outside for a while today just enjoying myself. Listening to 'La Bouche - I Love to love (club mix)'. Have you ever heard that one Princess? Afterwards I went home and I had a little nap in my couch. I had you in my mind before I dozed off.. And when I woke up I was given very clear instruction to design this. With this headline. What do you make of that? One can never be sure? Is the universe trying to trick me? Or is it very clear. In my previous experiences with these kinds of communications I have been mistaken I must admit. But that was then see...

Now is now. Things change. And I explained that I have made myself world famous and prince of the universe by myself without any other connection than God. So in this position.. This communication should be extremely accurate. Not an opinion of mine but just as a universal reflection? Don't you feel? There is only one way to find out! We meet and feel the vibe. We talk about this and that. And see where it goes. If..

..you wish to do so of course. I am not larger than life. I will never control any other human being. I can give orders but that is more in relation to someone serving me which I give respect and love for. But if things are as I feel they are, I would like to serve you. To me your are already a Queen. And a Queen needs her King. That's universal. And the universe is created all of love. And this I understand by feeling. With a hint of rationality. Like I counted on my fingers adding the number 9 to 65 today. After about minute I realized that from 65 to 70 is 5. So that leaves 4 and I could calculate the whole thing inside my mind. But you see that is not what I have focused on during my entire life. I have tried to the best of my ability to live in color. Which has no digits. It's all loving emotions. And as you see in the picture.. I did not make you greyscale. I am not a greyskull. I am She-Man. A feminine loving guy. That's a different kind of castle compared to Skeletor's. Perhaps this picture and these words are too much? I have done this kind of thing before. I have a hard time holding my love back. It is a lot. And When I say that I am talking about my chest and not my pants. My head is onboard with this as we are congruent for obvious reasons as we made this picture together. Heart and mind. I wish I could tell you what I could offer etc but still I don't want to. Because I would like to give myself if we connect like I suspect. And I would love it if you would like to give yourself to me. And from that point if we feel for sure that we want this. We can live happily ever after! Experiencing a true fairytale of everything we could ever dream of. Does that sound good? Am I attractive for you? I was born in 1982. Is that OK? I feel like 16 but mature. I love food. Music. Movies. Nature. Travel. Clothes. Baths. Spa. Drinks. Friends. Helping others. Making a world of love. Creating art! Music! And I wish to make my own movies to! Would you like to be a part of that? Together with me? No answer necessary now! No. These are just invitations. They are.. Not advertisements. We are not for sale. But.. Well... If you decide to do this. (And we advised not to) you need to connect spiritually with me. Which is extremely dangerous. Yes. Truthfully.

If you do this for all else added with me as a bonus. So we need to feel like we desire each other. For real. I am not joking. Because if there is foul play. It will hurt very much. And I am giving you a warning. And that warning is not about me hitting you. Or throwing acid in your face. Or stoning you in the streets. No. This warning is for me. Thru you. As I cannot take another goodbye after engaging in a relationship yet again from a broken heart. So it has to be love just as is. And if not we an be very good friends. So how to tell? Well we just hang out for a little bit and get to know each other. And I should advice doing it having fun. Enjoying ourselves. Yet a little bit private as to not sense each other at a concert you know?..

I await your reply Princess.. And if you are not interested I will understand. This simply means that there is someone else about a hair away from who you are. Which I find weird as in my current position in relation to being God. Which is a true representation in the flesh of love by choice doing as right as I possibly could for all of humanity and myself.. - All to get to you.

// Prince Leo

God is like: Rest in good

Transfer me 1 million and you will receive 8 back! And you hesitate. You might not even do it. But when you do and ask, so when? That first million is gone. And the remaining 7. Yet if you gladly give all. All you've got. And wait in faith. Absolutely knowing that God was just testing you with that 8 million return? You receive 800 million instead.

God is Love. The power that creates all.
Believe that. Trust that. Feel that.

Know that. Image God to receive = All good.

I AM : All Good - Effortless without judgement

So it's not about 'Have you been good?'. No. Because negative creation cannot exist. As it would be able to created itself completely. Which it can't as it is dark and not existing. Endless nothing.

This means that all you need. Is God. As God is Love. And gives to the Good.

So how do you perceive yourself emotionally. Which makes for a general state of feeling? You can feel good just like that. Right now. But chances are that you carry some resistance. And that resistance is negative energy allowed to exist in judgement. So as this remains? You struggle being good. Which is effortless.

So God is not the problem. Not you either. It's the lack of universal comprehension given all creation. All. Because everything works the same way. The flower blooming in spring and you blooming to be famous in the entire cosmos is the same thing. The same expression. Yet the flower does not have a mind like you. And it does not have sexuality like you do. It has a mind and sexuality. But not as technologically advanced as with a human being.

God is always online and always waiting for you. To feel good and rightfully receive. Whatever you desire. All is given. In relation to this current economic system created in relation to value. Which can be changed to work better. When we are more aligned with the laws of the universe in emotional understanding.

We create and give ourselves everything. What ever you believe in will become. So if you wanna make money selling your dirty socks you just have to believe in it and you will become a millionaire. But as this is far fetched and needs some serious convincing in relation to yourself as in you not being known at all in the world it will be a demanding challenge to say the least. That's why passion is the drive. Because if you are passionate about making money. You can make the socks idea work. And this will make you rich yet empty and smelly. So in relation to passion instead you will do it from soul intention. Which is all about expansion and that includes satisfaction of soul. That's something else. And when you do this you are on your hearts and not your minds path. And you will satisfy yourself, your true self. Actually contributing to a better and cleaner world. Not smelly and crunchy like the old socks. But that's the fun part of this game! Because you can do both! If you are very very interested in cheese for instance. Now you kind of sell "smelly socks" and make people enjoy themselves with a glass of wine.

All you need is to create at home. Experiment in whatever field you are interested in. And try it on your neighbors. On your family. Make a family business. Why not?

All businesses are family businesses. With very loyal employees you all feel like family. Blood doesn't mean anything at all. If humility and gratitude isn't there. You do not owe any relative anything. Just because of blood. That is complete bullshit.

The only thing is that you have a greater responsibility to help them in need. But not as a leech. If so? You kick them out. Brother, Sister? Does not matter. No parasites!

Everyone has to contribute and do something. If you become a part of my circle of trust you might just hang with me. As my good friend. But I would truly not like to see you taste your life. As you also need to satisfy your soul. And thus I will help you with whatever you dream of. Like a loving parent. Or big brother. Or little brother? Who made it. And can make dreams come true for others.

Money does not exist. It's a fantasy. Like everything else. All is energy which is perceived as in felt as negative or positive given the current context which is complex between relations. But this makes for experiences we value or devalue. Which is prefer or not. Like or dislike. Taste. Development. Change. All a part of it. But the key note in all of it is value. What makes God deliver is you feeling good.

Not exceeding yourself. Not devaluing yourself. Not passive. Just a slight smile of feeling good in general. Most of the time. Not questioning yourself and thus your existence. Inside out. Not outside in. Whatever pickle you are in is manageable. If you connect to God. If you are on your knees with a gun pressed against your forehead is a bit more tricky than not having clothes when it's snowing. And whatever got you to either of those experiences is you. If you become a detective looking back at why? And how come? *You can do this. If you truly want. Freedom of choice starts. Discarding 'No I can't'. Anything is possible. Anything can happen at any time. The wheel of fortune spins every year. With a slightly different code. But all in love as to match and make it as easy as possible. Remember that. Not making it harder. Making it easier. You never know what's gonna happen. Everything can be resolved for you in a split second. As you decide to say yes to a great deal. Which in hind site is one long yyyeeeeesss.... With a positive attitude no matter what. And all you need comes along all in relation to how you conduct yourself. And affirm everything in advance. You will not scream 'I AM FREE!' All of a sudden just like out of the blue. What happened in reality is affirming that prior to becoming it. Just perhaps not aware. Of creation. So what you do when aware is you take positive charge. And you deliberately state what you want. I am love. I am good. I am free. I am rich. And never doubt it. Not.

With honor of love held in your heart. Not giving in to temptations of defeat. No!

Serious about love.

Which again is manageable for about 10 seconds for real if you have a history of 10 bank robberies. 15 kidnappings. 3 murders and 1 rape.

You see.

So you've got some work to do..

You need to kill yourself. In spirit. Brake. To the false sense of self. The dark perception. And make yourself become more of what you is. Which is light. Love.

Don't fear. Your true self.

When I talk to someone about things they hold as in resistance I ask them if they've done all those things above. And they might freak out with a bit pf laughter and say: NO! Haha I have not done anything like that. And then I say: Yet they have the possibility to rid themselves of everything holding them back in understanding and forgiveness. And become what they dream about. All in love.

So what does that have to say about you. If your mother grabbed you by the ear 3 times. And your dad didn't let you go to that concert. And you got bullied in the fifth grade.

Because you see in this society as in all of this pressure form people living like stones. Kids murder their parents over stuff like this. From impressing their subconscious mind with self defeat being so victimized. And what do they need? Well they need to learn. And what happened? As we create our own reality all about soul expansion learning more about love? They gave it to themselves. The lesson. So you might think that society now must correct them and rehabilitate them. But everything is all projection/reflection which involves other people. And all of us are God experiencing a unique experience. So they cannot hide or run from themselves and need to learn in relation to themselves. Just like everybody else.

Rich is a misconception all together. Rich is rich in spirit. And the universe takes care of everything else. It happens automatically in ways we cannot see. Not even God knows as everything is new for everyone. And everyone is one. So it's a surprise party for all. Or else it would not be new. Completely. God would have quit otherwise. What is your knowledge about universal creation and existence?

Which inevitably will make you a good sport as in understating relationships. When everything is in relation to each other. And works best in harmony. That's rich. God makes this works. Effortlessly. As a dream come true continuously. And you have a personality which is a part of your human being. But that is not what you are. It's who you are. What you are is pure love. Soul being. And there is not a separation between any love in the known forever entire universe. So that makes you God in spirit.

Which you have the ability to trust. When I say ability is because of choice. And you are free to choose which ice cream you prefer today and you are free to choose if you are all physical or all spiritual today.

..So.. This is a special note..

I am writing this just for you. As a special gift. Princess..

I'm not calling you mine.

But just as a little extra more than I've given to the world. Because I feel you are worthy of it. And from you reading this and also together with everything else. You can become me. And you can choose your own life and destiny. So I cannot own you. For me you are always free. Free to be.. A Goddess.

But I still wish we could meet and eat some cake or something?

And just see how it feels..

Those 800 million for me is what I believe is you. I like money. I love possibility. And that is all money is. Flow. Happening. Forward. More. We need that. I don't wanna be on welfare with you. Not because of you but because it would not be right.

I wish for us to be able to do and enjoy whatever we wish! Until we no longer exist. As human beings.. This time.

GOD IS LIKE : REST IN GOOD

That's communication to myself. As I am soul identified. Not any exclusive God. No.. But I am closest as of now. And I believe no-one will come closer. Unless they've had similar experiences with the same sensitivity as I. Could be? All of this I write today. Tuesday, February 11th. 2025. As I feel so sure about this. So all I am asking is to give it a chance. To become friends. And perhaps more if we both feel like it. Take care and please don't think about it too much.. Listen to your heart.

You've got an idea which is creation. Then you've got belief which is emotion. And then you've got security which is faith. Secure deposit. Ideas come & go. Emotions come and go. But a feeling lingers. As you feel sure. Secure. Deal.

You can always find joy in nothing as you calm your breathing and relax your body. When you do this and focus only on calming your breath and letting your body be you release all history and expectation.

I just did that now.. For about ten minutes.

And I experienced a mushrooms type state by myself.

The cozy comes. Just like the darkness comes..

I invite it..

The darkness needs an invitation of stress.

The light needs an invitation of all good.. Relaxation.

So as I calmed my breathing.. And as I relaxed my body.

I used my mind. And with a slight smile I said inside myself.

..I..am...all..good....

Over and over. Very peacefully.

And now I am sort of tripping on my own.

Right before this I had a craving for a cigarette. And tension in my heart. I have not smoked today. But I told myself that this is just a habit. Not anything I need. And then I did the breathing, relaxing, affirming.

Now I can't see why I should smoke at all? I feel good.

I made me feel good.

It happened very fast as I take love serious and believe myself like I know myself.

I am experiencing a trustworthy system. So I will continue to affirm that I am all good. And I will continue to affirm what I desire. And I will allow for life to happen more. As it is time now.. To unleash it all. The mercy over humanity.. For those making the right choices. Loyal to love.

For some reason I both tasted and smelled cucumber right now?.. Funny.

People are often intimidated by fame. With experiences of public scandals. Corruption and ultimately destruction. But you see there are two sides two everything. Some famous people they go to a spa and not a rehab. These people they throw wonderful parties as to connect people spiritually. Some famous people they come from rehab. And throw parties with pink cocaine and barrels of lube connecting each other physically.

It's all about intention. Which is all about your connection inside out to begin with.

What is your intention? And we really don't have to mask and hide anything if we are loyal to spirit. Then it all works out without working anything out. Because you won't actually be corrupt. If I felt like I wanted to throw parties of lube bonanza I would say that. I would do that. But I don't.

I wish to have class in my life. With intelligence involved. So a bit like a fundraiser dinner but everybody can wear a hoodie. U feel me? We don't need to scream. We don't need to use foul language continuously. We can have a nice time with some dirty jokes. And after dinner we might talk about what's good. And do more of it.

We are intended to be more like a mastermind. Not personally take credit for stuff receiving awards on stage over and over. We are supposed to be rewarded for the team effort. Like in being humane.

Doing what is right. Together. Making life more equal. Yet still not letting people do whatever the shit they like cause they lack spark. So you see that's what it's all about. People with low self worth. People with no passion. Because they feel like it's no idea. But it all starts with an idea. So can ya think? Good! Can you imagine? Good. Now imagine you at a spa.. I just did that. In the shower. I did that calm breathing and affirmed myself being all good. And this entire page more or less.. Came to me. That's inspiration. Just given to me! What is all of transmutation.se? What are all songs? What are every cover? What is any interaction I choose to make and talk with people as to receive a different all new perspective?

Inspiration.

All of it. Pure non-conceptual & unconditional energy of positivity we call love.

That you choose to be open as to receive or not.
That starts with you having the idea that it exists.
The more you believe it the more you receive.
Because that's you making you open.

You are in complete control.
All in relation to how you make yourself feel.

You see people wanna be right.
They don't wanna be wrong?
And so they fight! Among each other,
with all sorts of opinions.

But hey!

Ley me settle this as of right now.
I am all right. Completely.
I am not all left. At all.

Which makes for yet another challenge.
As we know harmony is in perfection and balance.

So does this work? Anyone?

We make the choice as to connect right here:

But the heart is tilted slightly to the left?

And that makes love the winner!

As it even makes for a loving personality.

Which cannot be that, all by itself.
