

DA HOUSE OF WORTHSHIP

STUCK IN TIME

We are all the source of influence.

Times change and so does we. What we continue to communicate will become our destiny which is if not altered a false representation. I got evicted from my apartment and offered to stay in a room at a house defined as an emergency accommodation. But I am not in defeat. I've been here for about 3-4 days now and extensive healing has already taken place. The people I've come in contact with are people stuck in energy. They've gone thru similar difficulties for long periods of time. Why? Because they're stuck in communication. They affirm and speak of a static experience. And also take actions to support that. Life is on repeat. By choice. We sometimes get inspired by a source of influence. But we can also be that source of influence which inspires. I have been laying in my bed focused in my heart and on the individuals staying here just working with energy as to rid us all of resistance. And I witness the small initial changes. They might necessarily experience this and some might laugh at what I say. But I am very much aware and feel the offsets. How I transform these energies can sometimes be difficult to understand in terms of what I say to people. But I have learned that it's always a great stew. So for instance I could be focused on someone and their karma while also connecting to a piece of my own closets family. Like my sister for instance. Nothing is separated. All is connected. So when I go thru something for someone I've just met I also go thru a piece of my history which involves myself and other people. In doing so I heal all involved. Today for instance, Saturday 29th 2025 life will begin to change for the better for many individuals given what I've alchemized over the last 2 days. They are not aware of it. But they will feel the change. I am not gonna call them looking for cred? But I know it will happen. If you connect with someone at a very deep level of emotional understanding and go thru the emotion as to have a good non-judgemental cry, you heal them. And thus free them from a moment stuck in time preventing them from receiving. They still receive! All do. But I unfolded the hose bringing flow without them knowing about it. They will simply feel better. That's the world spirit. That's the collective love we are. All in this together. Sometimes I feel like I am in love with someone as this happens, you know like a crush! Like they are 'the one' for me. But that's something I've learned is the lack of love they fail to affirm inside themselves. Not fail to have or be. That's impossible. But not affirmed that's all folks. Wuzzup Doc?..

The house on the haunted hill holds memory of energy reactions and responses. And chances are that what I go thru in this house will affect all previous attendants that used to live here. That's magic! That's so great! That's love. All I need being so aware and focused is to be connected which is simply being in a close proximity to another human being. I pick up some dark vibes and then I work with 'em. All free. Do not tell them I'm doing it. And from that I get rich. And we move on. How come I get rich? Well it's all energy. And without resistance we are all rich. Because as a free love being without resistance we become attractive to our own true destiny. So I've helped them with this but they have also helped me. If you feel unworthy you get broke. And that is all from feeling stuck. So you become a stuckbroker. All from what you truly feel inside. People might laugh at me. But if they could have the opportunity to go thru what I went thru some hours ago they would probably die. As all of this happens in levels of readiness. Strength of heart. And wisdom to separate not letting dark spirits take over. Folks listen. You do not have to see anything as in materially in front of you. I get visions and dreams. I listen to those. I feel what I feel. I find understanding. I forgive. I release. Which cannot happen by rational ideas like some technological function. You actually need to go thru it emotionally. So there is no problem. Any emotion is never a problem. All logic eventually turns into a problem as the technological aspects become more and more advanced eventually turning on us. That's inevitable. I am so open! I am open for change. So I cannot help but to help! It hurts like crazy! And I needed support from Lisbeth the other day talking on the phone for about an hour as I went thru a lot. But I will never go thru that again now. And neither will the people involved. Because I found forgiveness and understanding about it all. And from that could free all.

We need to die to freedom. Which is the feeling of loss. I believe we move on to quick in relation to hurt. Because we don't wanna feel it. As it hurts. But that's all hertz. And lingers on.. So if we heal for real. Not to replay the hurt with injustice but to really allow for healing. We actually do heal. And things change. We are all the source of influence and inspiration. But have the choice as to freely be a part of that or to work like maniacs building constructions as to present a future of success in the material instead of the real. Which is in the spiritual. All is energy. So you see and extensive therapeutic conversation is in comparison to this like a blink of an eye compared to alchemized emotional as in feeling it all and going thru it. I don't need to know a bunch of stuff. I can just feel the emotion. Which is better actually because it does not initialize a whole lot of judgement in need of unraveling. Karma is karma. It holds no thought. Spirit is thoughtless but remembers all emotionally. And that's the universe. A collection of experienced emotions being manifested so beautifully.

So when is the perfect timing? = Always. But we can make the choice as to move on taking the karma with us. Which is actually not moving on. We move in the physical aspect yes. We change placed and scenery. We might work with moving boxes or combining certain elements as to create. But what we seek is more comprehension of our position which is all emotional. So if you wanna move. Move karma! I am in this house right now writing. Which for many people would be as close to being homeless without actually being homeless. But I am here in great success! I truly am. There's a reason why I'm here. And I listen intuitively as to honor this task of loving transformation. Check this out!:

Kool spot! I make the most of it. I made someone cry yesterday as I praised them and affirmed them to be a being of love. Something they've known for a long time but fought against in a sick society. That's the greatest gift you can give someone. Giving them the self. Being so confident in your own affirmed self that you can actually give it away as faith in love transfers not being false. Take it all in. Feel it all and you benefit from it. That's real. Better believe it. Often. Affirm it. And eventually you live in faith. Which is no longer a belief. That's trust. In love.

Call that the universe, call it source, call it God. It doesn't matter. And needs not a single word. So free from all ideologies. Free from all ideas. As love is free. What makes the majority of people dismissal in relation to all of transmutation now sharing what is happening right now is comparison. Most will look at all of this and make this into what I do and what kind of person I am, all in relation to what they aren't and what they don't do. Can we please end that. This is the definition of Ego living. Do not make sunshine into your own defeat. That's all Ego. Drop me. Get me out of the picture. Listen to what I say and look at what I do and do the very same. Your own way. Get inspired! Do not compare. This will make you not even fall on the finish line but actually not even entering the game. It's not a race. It's not a competition. It's a game. A game of love. So play it. Play it so much that you trust it so much that you allow to be played. And you will be positioned exactly where you are supposed to be positioned as to take care of what you are ready for which is making you ready for what you wish to be ready for. That's a tripple plus right there. Holy trinity. Pyramid. Message. Power. Love.

And I have not studied Egyptology or Paleontology but I make it like a Ross anyway. I make it work. From not escaping. Embracing. And doing what I feel I can do. Life goes on.. Always. What do you wanna be a part of. Or apart from. What is your general vibe? And what are you doing about it? Holding on? Releasing? Doubting? Trusting? Love creates everything. Why not believe it? Why be so serious about it all? Maybe you're stuck? And the unnatural act is making you tensed? Take sex out of that picture. It has nothing to do with it. What you seek is nowhere to be found. As it's all about affirming true nature. And in doing so there is no separation. Which explains this whole 'nothing to be found' thing. Which isn't a thing. It's pure aware loving consciousness which you is. And then you have a body which has a brain and inside that brain you've got a cognitive structure which is forever changing more or less (by choice) called your personality. Which is supposed to come along for the ride. Enjoying life. Not to be the ruler of control making life happen. That's false. False living. And needs lies to support its existence. You as a human being exist. But only in this moment. And no moment is ever the same. But your true essence, the soul being of love that you is.. Is all true pure energy which is conscious and goes on forever.

Imagine where I would have been as of right now if I did not communicate as to understand more? Dead. For sure. No doubt about that. I could not have carried all of this inside my chest and get away with keeping quiet. No SirMam.

It's all trade.

You trade the lie for life. As either accepting it and losing life. Or accepting it and gaining life. Can you see that? Accepting it as true. Or as false. So it's all acceptance either way. From accepting a lie to be true you need to reinforce it. Which makes for more lying. When you accept it as a lie not being true you bring light to the matter. And darkness has no chance. So be you, be true. Is real.

What you get from this is not primarily stuff at all. What you get is a more vivid and light absorbing experience. Which makes everything lovely. Like a natural high.

If you feel like you're done where you are you might be. Live there. Or else it becomes painful. I will move from this location when I have done what I am here for. Which is not to let people pass by for 35 years as to heal them. No! This is my life primarily. My life cannot happen without me. So the reason I am here is all about access. It's an access point. I connect here. For the given purpose. As to help out sure. But mainly to take care of what I need in relation to myself. As to become more of what I am. But I do not focus on that. I see that as a bonus you see. And that's how I make it work for myself. And the Ego comes along with focus on love. Always. Can you do that? Sure.

How? Relate. Always. Do not judge. Allow for people rendering you as crazy. They might laugh behind your back? Don't worry. Keep connected. Be real. Stay on time. And the last laugh might be together with them some day. Being friends. 'Cause it was all a misunderstanding. I would win Miss Universe any day. But people don't understand that. And that's all about perspective. I see the Universe. So I am it. They see the circumstance and physicality of it. And laugh at creation manifested. Which is not such a great idea in relation to what gives is absolutely everything. And that's humility. So they might find gratitude from reading this afterwards. And I'll be there to not hold a single resentment against them.

Only understanding. That's mature. Wanna compete about that? You win.
