ABOUT Love!!!

War! What is it good for?

Your destiny is your self affirmation aligned with the message of truth in relation to your resistance which is the karma in the entire world but experienced at most in relation to your closest family. We are all family.

So what all of us need to do is to self realize ourselves using our passion in creation as this becomes natural for us.

When the pressure arise as in feeling overwhelmed not being able to complete the purpose is affirming the darkness which is the resistance. So the only thing is to keep creating but most importantly keep affirming yourself. That is self realization right where you are.

Accept who you are and do what you wish to do. The universe will support you. As a true representation of soul intention will benefit all in expanding the love.

Soul livin'

A bit of an effort, but it's also what's intended and expected having a human experience. Love won't fail you.

Love never fails.

This will be as tough as it gets from the inside out. Judging yourself/others all static in fear of true self. Look down upon people actually giving it all as to raise the general vibe from low (judgemental) to high (freeing) is completely done in jealousy.

All in relation to themselves behaving coward within their own unique experience/reality.

The need for attention is legit and correct, natural and healthy in relation to true self which is pure unconditional non-conceptual love. Don't get it twisted. Don't shoot the messenger. Be mature enough to look at yourself fool. Self played in false move.

Game over. Or game on.

You decide.

I am blunt. With no object.
Strike real. With heart as weapon.
In the stars wars of misconception.

'You're free! 2 Do Watt U Want 2 Do!'

.. You gotta live YOUR life 🍷🕊️🌸🌟😘

See life as a Falcon, Dream On..

Joyce would have killed herself if not for her knowing that Will was alive trusting the signs..

(The main resistance from family members is at the core they not believing in anything else but the visible/material)

Keep da faith 🕊️

What you are drawn to in interest and exploration is something in alignment with your development in some way. Maybe you don't want to do certain things but you need to get close as to truly form an honest opinion. So stay open.. don't judge anything.

It will kill you.

What you seek is not in the superficial. But actually also. But from the inside out.

Resentment is just resistance of self. Understand, forgive, release..

Come free 🍷

Don't mix sex with love. Let sex be free.
Let love be free. Have sex lovingly.

Enjoy life, have fun!

Pregnancy's happen during war. As we all need love and affection. But truth be told if people affirm themselves correctly there will be a more responsible approach to life taking love serious. And from that there won't be any babies born in war.

Because there won't be a war to begin with.

Every conflict is a conflict rooted in one individual attraction others in the same vibration (general feeling) as to learn together but instead make that into a war.

So we can realize ourselves or give birth to children in hell? All from shame, guilt & fear of our own true self. Killing in the name of..

All is perception with the possibility for an objective perspective in search for answers all about the core issue. Not in the periphery. So a conflict between 2 people is nothing else but a mini war. Yet kills spiritually with collateral damage nonetheless..

What is love? Well.. making the choice to distance ourselves makes for war. So war, what is it good for? This.

To learn what love is.

It's all good. God. Love! Praise!

If anyone has a problem with me, the one understanding and thus writing all of this. They are in all humility not understanding themselves.

Humble is the way forward

I have created about 75 affirmation songs. Some individuals can listen to one of those songs and form a judgemental opinion.

.. That's not humble.

People have known about me for a long time but none have supported me. That's fear..

Of true self. (Control by intellect 5%)

Use our intelligence. The 95% of you as a human being but 100% of you in soul spirit.

All guys wanna feel huge! That's all perception from what matters the most or not. Love enables all.

Not any opinion. Universal reality.

All is really depth perception which becomes debt in darkness. Work with that instead of against it and you stay put but alter your own perception.

Free will! We want free will. Going against free will is considered a violation of free will. In my perspective I actually don't need a formal law as to understand that.

So let's say that I am OK with being video'd or photographed as I please. It's my own choice. My free will. People might go against that completely going against my free will but call that something professional?

That's mind control. On their behalf.

Lack of self control & emotional distancing primarily in relation to themselves. A functional robot designed to go against free will. Going against love. Against the flow.

And some might say: YEAH! That's right!

But at the same time scroll thru feeds, buy magazines, watch shit on TV. And make all of that happen.

So who's the most coward dishonest jealous judgemental robot of them all?
Behaving together like a mountain slammed in the river?

The waste of time and energy is incredibly moronic as of today. Fueled with opinions and judgement. All in lack of personal responsibility in actually doing what is expected in relation to their own life.

Do you really believe that you where meant to work in shitty conditions with low pay? All is about health. And that is not material!

It's about how you affirm yourself. Come from a soul intention and reconnect every once in a while and you'll make yourself successful. You, you body & your personality.

The Ego is your loyal servant. When you are the humble master. Giving you all you need in speedy delivery as you wish for all to have a wonderful day in the neighborhood.

I am sick. And I am tired.

Because of this. Because I feel.

A LOT!

The ones not bothered are the ones not equally sensitive and open. So one might think that I should close up. And harden.

Like a stiffy.

And not do what's right? With my power of love all in relation to my sensitivity which is my gift! Not my diagnosis and error you fuckin fuck fucka muthafucka dildo suckin shit eating fuck fuckface fuck fuck!

FUCK YOU!

FUCK DA FUCK FUCKIN MUTHAFUCKIN U!

Spiritual bullet in dat muthafuckin head!

Anger rises up! Hate rises up!
With all clarity & with all rights.

I ain't the damage and sick one..

I am the healthiest of all!
In a sick fuckin society run by robots.
Making me sick.

Fuck you.

ADHD is energy not focused. Simple as that. No passion. No sense of purpose. No direction.

Autistic is Artistic. But becomes all fuckin retarded on drugs not knowing anything about destiny, purpose and passion.

Fear or fuckin Love people.
Do what da fuck is right!

You weak fucks! Judging with all your might!
Condemning and ridiculing the one's that actually have courage to be strong for real.

Offended? Well.. if so. You deserve it. And you need it. Because your mind is bigger than your heart. Muthafucka.

I am : Muthalovva

Feminine guy. Emotional guy.
Humane. Passionate being.

Of love.

Mic pushed up in ass about an arms-length and then shit out on stage with diarrhea consisting of Tutti Frutti candy and Jul-Fuckin-Must.

Come kill me! Come kill the most honest, giving, understanding, loving & forgiving guy in the world.

A am such a threat!!!

One last time. Ask to get rid of what is no longer serving you. And affirm what you desire as in what is what you truly want as in what is loving that benefits all.
Have a relationship with yourself, with self. Being God.

As a soul being having human experience.

We learn more about emotions from films and series than actual human interaction.
What would your reaction be if a child died?

Look at 'Stranger Things' for instance with the scene where they see the newscast about Will being found in the quarry.

That's the kind of emotional expression we feed our subconscious with whom accepts all without judgement in relation to something like that. And from that make 'A child dying' into something not that upsetting.

This is not my opinion. It's how we function as we consume. Adjusting to the world.
To behave appropriate in relation to a world of emotion or not.

We make ourselves afraid and turn off what actually makes us come together. For art?

I love that series, don't get me wrong. I just used that as an example. It's not a problem when we actually live life the most and not fleeing from it experiencing it thru a bunch of media instead. That never ever can be life. Ever. To the subconscious mind there are no differences between any realities.

You might think it's only that one scene. But how many of those are you watching? In a year? Over 10-20-30 years. And have issues with people in close relationships at the same time. How are we going to get along then? If you don't get along in a healthy relationship with yourself?

Life, love is all about what we give ourselves. For some more demanding because of dark self perception. From what we've been given in "so called love".

Change that and you change everything.
Participate. Engage. Be present. Feel life.

Feel love.

Don't think too much.

This whole ascension thing is us. We are the creators. If the world's gonna be a better place we do that by becoming better as in correct ourselves. Which is being true moving closer to a true reflection which is self realization. And in that reality we might not have to bury kids. Or make them feel like dying for half their lives.

Science is neat. But not very forgiving.
That's human.

A monster. A creator living in darkness does nothing wrong really. What it does is its true nature. Which none of us are. Only behave like in fear of our own loving natural humane artistic and free spirit..

When somebody convinces you is because of a really great act. The subconscious mind accepts everything without any questioning. There is no difference between a movie, life & dream. So what you wanna become you eventually just have to be. Right where you are. The only thing about that is self conviction. You need to act the part. And convince yourself.

Like Jim Carrey. With 'Man on the moon'.

All in.

And this becomes crazy if there is not any support in your own creation in relation to this. But really not a problem if that support is there.

So be who you wanna be. Create it.
Be it. And you live it.

The dream..

People are stuck. So the hold you stuck.

Drop everything for this. For your own realization. Your own greater good.

And the universe has no choice.
Because it's not judgemental at all.

It just mirrors what you feed on a continuous basis. Like life being more or less the same. Or transforming.. developing. Unfolding.

You create the loop. Or get out of it.

Blooming. Held in shade for some time..

Now ready for the sun.

Limitations of the mind is like everything else..

Freedom of choice 🌟🌱🧠🐟👉🌸☀️

The power of the mind, the stubborn Ego.
Is really your possibility in creating what you want. Creating yourself. But it won't happen in going against yourself. It can. You can become the deceptive dictator, freedom of choice.

But no 'The One' which we all are truly desires that. Free from false self perception.

The most powerful thing in the universe!!!

.. Is I Am..

👍 What you desire

👎 Or not

🤔 Think about that

💕 Feel for it 🌸

What follows 'I AM' becomes..

My own special creation.

Glory 🏆

As an example, in sacrifice.
To lead the way, forward.

Which I also reap the benefits from.

God / Love first.

I am = The One

No competition

God Speed = No stress

I am : Famous in the whole wide world

..already is.

I am is God, Soul, Spirit.

It's up to you to connect with it as much as possible.
Which is to be sensitive and spiritual.

When you connect with it you connect with what's already existing as famous and known as everything existing.

I am, the non-conceptual & unconditional energy that makes everything possible.

The more rational you are in a logical structure of mental limitation the further away from 'I am' you are. And the harder you will have to work in your physicality in order to make a living.

The living you make is your creation.

So what do you truly want?

Question come:

Well not me?
I can't do that?
That's not possible?

Which is all mental structure of personal identify defined by a rigid and fixated state which always has the possibility to transform. People think this is all about taking a course. That it's all about perfecting you skills. From the outside in.

It's a part of it. Depending on what you wish to become.

But the true power is connecting with the true power.

So you see it's already done.
You don't create 'I am'. You don't create the power that creates all.

You connect with it.

Which isn't possible without having a relationship with it. Call it God, Source, Love, The Universe. You are living in a constant split. You, your personal identity and your true self. Those two can become one more or less. Develop together from the foundation of the true self. The personal identity humble as to praise the true self as number one. All you in relation to you.

Which in effect makes you humble in relation to other human beings.

That's some pretty genius design from the creator of a human being.

You can only give what you have.
You can only become who you truly are.

Which can be in nuance regarding the most honest and true self image or the opposite. Lies are a rational and logical structure. Truth just is.

When holding up a fence or a wall is all in relation to yourself.

In shame, guilt & fear.

Enough of those and you are a walking dead.
A zombie.

Many human beings receive "care" as in attention related to their negative and thus low frequency emotions. And from this they believe that this is what "care" is. So they give this to themselves. Feeling sorry.

During springtime in my city I saw a gentlemen trimming a tree near the University. He did not see me but I was observing him as he worked. With everything he did his teeth clammed together like he was lifting a car. And he looked around after every move as to see if someone saw the hard work he was doing.

And this is people.

People walking around with a soar back and hurting knees. Wishing to talk about that and to make a face of struggle as to be affirmed as living a rough life.

What do you want all this attention for?

Truth be told.. You want to be affirmed as a victim.

But life is all inside out.

So what you seek is to be seen and heard in relation to the core issue which makes you behave like this. Which is a neglected heart. Neglected self love.

That's why you hurt so much and struggle because you are affirming the manifested consequence of that neglect.

Treat the core issue.

And everything else will in time resolve itself.

You can't go see a Doctor about this. And neither a mechanic.

What you need is to communicate with yourself.

Come to peace and talk to your own heart. That is talking to God.

God is Love. Love is God.

The supreme yet all humble.

Giving you everything as you give in.
Fight with it and the system will kill you.

As you are in opposition to yourself.

In misunderstanding of all that you kill others.

God/Love has been pushed away further and further all from religion.

In misunderstanding yet also irresponsibility not relating in life but believing in a story that puts your true authentic self on a pedestal all in judgement outside you.

You are God.

You are Love.

You are Soul.

Image of God.

And that is what you can and is supposed to use.

In creating yourself.

Every course, every class has its origin from people whom have done this.
Where do you think anything comes from?

Creation is a manifestation coming from people. The rest is trees, water, animals, flowers, vegetables, wind, sun. That's the template we all share. We experience the same planet.

The innovation is you.

You are the inventor.

All of what I have created is one massive idea I had.
And it evolved as I made it come alive.

What I use as my main tool in creating anything is feeling.

I don't judge by appearance.

I don't edit words.

I go by feeling.

"When is the cover or song done?"

When I feel it is.

When is the complete artwork of what I've created done?

The website, the music, the YouTube channel?..

With this document.

I feel that I've given it my all.

I feel that I can do more but not with this.

Now I feel that I must move on.

Now I am ready to create more of what I feel I need to communicate in an artistic way. But I leave this now. I have done what I could with it.

I did the last two songs.

I can't say as much so I don't feel like recording a video.

I am writing this and I feel like it's a great summary of everything.

But I don't give up for even a second as to reconnect and ask about my next move. And I ask that is peace. In the calm. Which is not created.

I just find it by not looking for it.

I return to it.

I return to innocence.

..If you wanna fly you gotta let go..

The Muses Rapt - ...And The Sensitives Will Be King

Peace.
